

Eschatology: The Study of the End Times

Blessings!! This file will offer you multiple teachings and charts regarding God's Plan and Purpose for the Ages, Dispensational Truth, and the End Times. In order to properly understand these doctrines one must see God's Plan from HIS perspective in order to see God's Plan & Purpose for the Ages. If I were to ask you, "What time did the sun rise today?" you would probably give me a time. That is the first thing that comes to mind. But in fact, the question is wrong. The sun does not rise but the earth moves around the sun. We see things from what we've been taught or shown. Even the Bible mentions the words sunrise and sunset. God, in His grace, shows us things from man's perspective in order to relate at that level. But, more importantly, we need to see things from God's perspective. In order to do this we need to be filled with God's Spirit as God commands us. We can't pray without His Spirit. We can't understand God's Word without His Spirit giving us revelation. And God promises to lead us into ALL TRUTH.

First, we need to come to the Father through faith in the precious shed blood of Jesus Christ by faith (Jesus "has" shed His blood for us once and for all). Second, we need to take everything we have learned and lay it at the foot of the cross. Everything needs to go through the cross so that we can die to "our" way of thinking, die to wrong teaching(s), and die to self (among other things). Finally, we need to ask God to fill us with His Holy Spirit. I personally ask God to do this (by faith for anything not done in faith is sin: Romans 14:23) before I pray, before I read the Bible, and throughout the day. I usually do this when I wake up, before meals, and at night. Psalm 36:9 says, "In his light we see light". Here is a prayer that you may want to use:

Father God, I come to You through faith in the shed blood of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Jesus, Your shed blood gives me forgiveness of my sins, healing in my being, and power. Thank You for shedding Your blood on the cross of Calvary Jesus. Bless You.

Jesus, I come to the cross that brought death to my old self, my sinful nature, and death to sin. I want to lay my life, my thinking, and anything that is not of You at the cross. Thank You Jesus that the cross has brought death to whatever is not of You.

Now, Lord Jesus will You resurrect in me & through me Yourself by the Power of the Holy Spirit. Holy Spirit, if it pleases You, come fall upon me right now in the Matchless and Mighty Name of Jesus. Now Sweet Spirit of Life, Comfort, Counsel, and Power will You come and fill me with You. Fill me in my spirit, fill me in my mind, fill me in my will so my will becomes Your will, fill me in my emotions, and fill me throughout every cell in my body from the top of my head to the bottom of my feet. Come and melt away anything that is not of You. I want to be filled to overflowing with You. Thank You Giver of Light, Love, and Life. I bless You and praise You in Jesus' Mighty Name I pray. Amen.

The following is a course on God's Plan and Purpose for the Ages. This will be followed by multiple teachings and charts to look over as God leads. God bless You are you "rightly divide the Word of Truth", "study to show yourself approved, and be "led into all truth". Understand there is ONE TEACHER, ONE LORD, and ONE GOD. Be wise and discerning and if something doesn't sit right then lay it at the foot of the cross – God will resurrect what is of Him in His time and His way (Philippians 3:1-21).

Evidence For A Pre-Trib Rapture

by Kent Crockett: Evidence For A PreTribulation Rapture - BibleStudyPlanet.com

Let me first say that our fellowship as Christians is not based upon the timing of the rapture, but upon the finished work of Jesus on the cross. Some have accused those who believe in a pre-tribulation rapture as "escapists," trying to avoid all trouble or persecution. On the contrary, the Church always has been and always will be persecuted as long as we are in the world, but this is not the same as the wrath of God poured out during the Tribulation (1 Thess.1:10; 1 Thess.5:9). We believe the rapture occurs before the Tribulation because scriptures overwhelmingly support a pre-tribulation rapture, as opposed to the a-millennial, post-millennial, and post-tribulation theories.

The following is a look at 16 scriptural evidences that indicate the rapture will be Pre-Tribulation. ("Pre-tribulation" rapture means Jesus will gather those who believe in Him, (who have repented, have been born again, have trusted in the shed blood of Jesus at the cross for forgiveness of sin, and those who have believed in Christ's resurrection from the dead) together in heaven before the Seven Year Tribulation.)

Evidence #1: Revelation 19:11-21 doesn't mention a resurrection

The rapture is a resurrection of those "in Christ" (1 Thess. 4:13-18). Isn't it a little bit odd that in Rev. 19:11-21, which is the clearest picture of the second coming of Christ, there is no mention of a resurrection? The rapture will be the biggest event since the resurrection of Jesus where hundreds of millions of Christians will be resurrected and translated, yet there isn't any mention here. Don't you think it deserves at least one verse? The rapture isn't mentioned because it doesn't happen at the second part of the Second Coming. (First part: Christ is in the air; Second part: Christ puts His feet upon the earth).

Evidence #2: Zechariah 14:1-15 doesn't mention a resurrection

This is an Old Testament picture of Jesus returning to earth at the Second Coming. Again, no mention of a resurrection.

Evidence #3: Two different pictures are painted

In the Old Testament, there were two different pictures painted of the Messiah—one suffering (Isa. 53:2-10, Ps. 22:6-8, 11-18) and one reigning as King (Ps. 2:6-12, Zech. 14:9,16). As we look back on these scriptures, we see they predicted two separate comings of the Messiah—the 1st coming as a suffering Messiah and the 2nd coming (still future) as a reigning King.

In the New Testament, we have another picture added. Again, we have two pictures painted which don't look the same. These two different descriptions of Jesus' coming point to two separate events we call "the rapture" and "the second coming."

Evidence #4: The Known Day and the Unknown Day

Concerning the return of Jesus, the Bible presents a day we can't know and a day we can know. Matthew 25:13 says Jesus will return at an unknown time, while Revelation 12:6 says the Jews will have to wait 1,260 days for the Lord to return. The 1,260 days begins when the Antichrist stands in the Temple and declares himself to be God (Matt. 24:15-21, 2 Thess. 2:4) This event will take place at the mid-point of the seven year

Tribulation (Dan 9:27). The Antichrist has authority to rule for 42 months, which is 1,260 days (Rev. 13:4) and will be destroyed by Jesus at His second coming (Rev. 19:20, 2 Thess. 2:8). The known and unknown days must happen at different times, meaning they are two separate events.

Evidence #5: A door open in heaven (Revelation 4:1)

The door in heaven is opened to let John into heaven. We believe John's call into heaven is prophetic of the church being caught up at the rapture (see proof #6). In Revelation 19:11, heaven is opened again, this time to let the armies which are already in heaven out. This is the Church, which has been raptured at a previous time, following Jesus out of heaven at the second coming.

Evidence #6: "Come up here." (Revelation 4:1)

A voice called for the apostle John to "Come up here," and immediately he was in heaven. This could be a prophetic reference to the rapture of the Church. The words "Come up here" are spoken to the two witnesses who are killed in the middle of the Tribulation, who are resurrected and ascend into heaven (Rev. 11:12). Therefore, the phrase "Come up here" could mean the church is raptured in Rev. 4:1. The word "church" is mentioned 22 times in Rev. 1-3, but is not mentioned again until Rev. 22:17.

Evidence #7: The 24 elders have their crowns

After John is called up into heaven, he sees the 24 elders with their crowns (Rev. 4:4-10). We know that Christians will receive their rewards (crowns) at the rapture (2 Tim. 4:8, 1 Pet. 5:4). We will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous (Luke 14:14). The elders couldn't receive their crowns unless the resurrection (rapture) has taken place.

Evidence #8: Holy ones are already with Jesus in heaven (Zech. 14:5, Rev. 19:14)

The armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, follow Jesus out of heaven at His second coming (Rev. 19:14, Zech. 14:5, Col. 3:4). These are not angels because Rev. 19:8 tells us the fine linen is the righteousness of the saints. In order to come out of heaven we first have to go in, indicating a previous rapture.

Evidence #9: Kept from the hour of testing (Rev. 3:10)

Revelation 3:10 says we will be kept out of the hour of testing which will come upon the whole earth (the Tribulation). Some have wrongly believed "keep" means to keep through, or protect through the Tribulation. Suppose you approach a high voltage area with a sign that says, "Keep Out." Does that mean you can enter and be protected? No, it means you are forbidden from entering the area. But this verse also says He will keep us from the hour of testing. It is not just the testing, but the time period. If a student is excused from a test, he still may have to sit in the class while others take the test. But if he is excused from the hour of testing, he can go home. The Church will be called home before the hour of testing.

Evidence #10: Angels don't resurrect people when they gather them for judgment

When the angels are sent forth to gather the elect at the second coming (Matt. 24:29-31), some have wrongly interpreted this as the rapture. There is one huge problem with this interpretation. If we are resurrected at this time, why would we need angels to gather us? In the resurrection, we will be like the angels (Matt. 22:30), able to travel in the air at will. Obviously, these people who are gathered are not resurrected, therefore it can't be the rapture. No one would claim the wicked are raptured at this time, yet Matthew 13:39-41) says the angels will not only gather the elect, but also the wicked. This gathering is not a resurrection.

Evidence #11: Both wicked and righteous both can't be taken first

First Thessalonians 4:13-17 says the righteous are taken and the wicked are left behind. Matthew 13:30, 49 says the wicked are taken first and righteous are left behind. This points to two separate events, the rapture and the second coming.

Evidence #12: Jesus returns from the wedding

When Jesus returns to earth at the second coming, He will return from a wedding (Luke 12:36). At the rapture, Jesus is married to His bride, the Church. After the wedding, He will return to earth.

Evidence #13: Jesus will receive us to Himself, not us to receive Him (John 14:2-3)

Jesus said He would prepare a place for the Church in heaven, then He would come again to receive us to Himself. Why would Jesus prepare a place for us in heaven and then not take us there? At the rapture, He will come to receive us to Himself, "that where I am (heaven), there you may be also." If the rapture occurred at the same time as the second coming, we would go up to the clouds and then immediately come back to earth. That would contradict John 14:2-3.

Evidence #14: The one who restrains is taken out of the way

In 2 Thess. 2:6-7, Paul says "the one who restrains will be taken out of the way" before the Antichrist can be revealed. We believe this refers to the rapture because the Holy Spirit who lives within the Church is clearly the biggest obstacle to the Antichrist becoming a world ruler.

Evidence #15: The separation of the sheep and goats (Matt. 25:31-46)

If the rapture occurred at the second coming, why would the sheep and the goats need to be separated immediately after the second coming? With a Pre-Tribulation rapture, the people saved after the rapture will need to be separated after the second coming.

Evidence #16: Who will populate the Millennium?

If the rapture occurs at the second coming and the wicked are cast into hell at that time, who will be left to populate the millennium? Only people in their natural (non-resurrected) bodies will be able to have children (Matt. 22:30). With a Pre-Tribulation rapture, the people saved after the rapture who are alive at the second coming will populate the earth during the Millennium.

EVEN SO, COME LORD JESUS!!!
