HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

The following are a few thoughts on how to lead this group. This book can be used for one on one discipleship, bible studies, and/or larger group settings. Nobody can tell someone how to teach. Please be aware of how "YOU" teach as an individual. My goal was to give lots of material as well as to provide a teaching tool that would take little preparation and be used by "lay people" to further the kingdom. The following are a few suggestions for you to lead and facilitate with:

1) PRAYER/WORSHIP: I like to start out with a prayer. I may pray or ask a member to pray. After prayer, we worship. The goal is to soften hearts and allow the others to worship. I either lead the singing or appoint a worship leader to guide us in this special time of worship.

2) BIBLE STUDY: After worship, we do Bible Study. This is the "core" of the study and a time to study God's Word. Allow God's Spirit to rule here. It is more to allow God to speak to our hearts than to "study" the Bible. If something doesn't get done it can be done at home afterwards. LET THE SPIRIT LEAD YOU. YOU MAY FIND YOURSELF TALKING ABOUT SOMETHING BESIDES THE QUESTION. GOD WANTS TO SPEAK "TO" AND "THROUGH" PEOPLE.

3) OPTIONAL TIME: In this time, I have individuals volunteer to sing a healing song, give a testimony of healing, share a healing poem, talk about answered prayer, etc. I usually ask for volunteers the meeting before so people can prayerfully prepare.

4) CLOSING WORSHIP/PRAYER: Finally, we finish with worship and a closing prayer. Again, I try to get other people involved by asking them to lead prayer and worship. I also encourage people to stay and fellowship after.

What Others Say about "The Song of Songs"

Focus on the Bible has put out wonderful commentaries on many Biblical books as well as the Song of Songs written by Richard Brooks (See www.christianfocus.com). In his book, the author recommends commentaries by James Durham, George Burrows, Matthew Henry, John Gill, Thomas Robinson, Hudson Taylor, Jonathan Edwards, Charles Spurgeon, John Newton, and John Owen. Here are just a few comments by some of these writers on the Song of Songs:

The Song of Songs is a spiritual delight of holy minds, in the nuptial union of that king and queen of the heavenly kingdom, which is Christ and the Church. But this pleasure is wrapped up in folds of allegory that it may be more ardently desired and may be unfolded with greater delight (Augustine).

There can be no parties mentioned, besides Christ and his Bride, to whom this Song can agree - - the doctrines which this Song yieldeth for all conditions, and which for believers' use are to be drawn from it, are the same plain, solid spiritual truths which are drawn from other scriptures, wherein Christ's love to his church and people, and their exercises are set down (James Durham).

This divine poem sets forth in a most striking manner the mutual love, union, and communion, which are between Christ and his church; also expresses the several different frames, cases, and circumstances which attend believers in this life; so that they can come into no state or condition, but here is something in this song suited to their experience: which serves much to recommend it to believers, and discovers the excellency of it (John Gill).

It is a song...or nuptial song, wherein, by the expressions of love between a bridegroom and his bride, are set forth and illustrated the mutual affections that pass between God and a distinguished remnant of mankind....Christ and the church in general, Christ and particular believers, are here discoursing with abundance of mutual esteem and endearment (Matthew Henry).

This sense of the love of Christ, and the effect of it in communion with him, by prayer and praises, is divinely set forth in the Book of Canticles. The church therein is represented as the spouse of Christ; and, as a faithful spouse, she is always either solicitous about his love, or rejoicing in it. In brief, this whole book is taken up in the description of the communion that is between the Lord Christ and his saints (John Owen).

The true believer who has lived near his Master will find this book to be a mass, not of gold merely, for all God's Word is this, but a mass of diamonds sparkling with brightness; and all things thou canst conceive are not to be compared with it for its matchless worth. If I must prefer one book above another, I would prefer some books of the Bible for doctrine, some for experience, some for example, some for teaching, but let me prefer this book above all others for fellowship and communion. When the Christian is nearest to heaven, this is the book he takes with him (C.H.Spurgeon).

SOME THOUGHTS

Who can truly write a book on the Song of Songs? It is the love letter of love letters, the indescribable love of Christ for His Church, and the love of Christ for the individual believer. It is a love that took Jesus Christ to the cross of Calvary bearing the sin of the world. A perfect love and a perfect lover for a world undeserving of Him. Upon drawing us to Himself, He continues His love for us as believers and His Church by reaffirming his love to us through this wonderful book of the Bible. And be wants us to respond. He desires our love and has a passion to be loved by us. Because love begets love.

I have taken the time to take the individual or group through the Song of Songs giving notes, reflections, and questions. In this way, I pray that hearts will be stirred to love Christ even more and to share this love with the world. If we purchase something from a store and are satisfied, how we love to tell others about it. But "we have been purchased" with the precious blood of Christ and how much more should we long to tell the world.

Many of the notes in this book have been adapted or used from the Book "Song of Songs" by Richard Brooks. We thank the author for his diligent study of this masterpiece. We highly recommend the book (and all his books) as the author is well studied, doctrinally discerning, and has received light from God. We have also put some devotions by C.H.Spurgeon thoughout the book. Wonderful promises of God using the Song of Songs.

But most importantly, we thank the Holy Spirit for fulfilling His promise to make Christ known. We love You sweet Spirit.

FURTHER THOUGHTS

The Song of Songs can be read in three lights:

God's love and relationship with Israel the nation

Christ and His bride the church

Jesus and the individual believer

As this is a personal or small group Bible Study, the focus will be on the last two – Christ and His bride & Jesus and the individual believer. I sometimes worry about the words Bible Study. Sometimes people get so involved in "studying the Bible" that they learn "head-knowledge" rather than "spiritual-knowledge". Spiritual knowledge is God revealing Himself to the heart – at a deep heart level. Through the revelation of how God sees things we receive light and truth. Spiritual knowledge is God's perspective not ours. This is really what Bible Study is all about. Receiving light from God from His perspective that offers life-changing results. "For with you is the fountain of life; in your light we see light." (Psalm 36:9). Many have studied the Bible with an unchanged life. The Word of God is living and active!! It is a hammer!! It is a fountain!! It is God speaking to us!! His Word never returns void!! But it needs a Spirit-filled heart open to receiving the truth!! So as you do this study, you are encouraged each time to repent of any and all things that would get in the way of receiving light and truth. Allow God to fill you with His Holy Spirit. Finally, be open to seeing God's perspective and allow yourself to be changed by His glory! "We love Him because He first loved us" (1 John 4:19).

LESSON #1 BIBLE STUDY

Introduction:

The Song of Songs must be interpreted spiritually. We can see a close connection between the Song of Songs and Psalm 45. Psalm 45 helps further open up the Song of Songs. We can see Psalm 45 quoted in the NT and applied to Christ. Other people in the Song are: The maidens (virgins) who are mature believers. The daughters of Jerusalem are those who are young in Christ. The watchmen are ministers of the Gospel. The Church's need is to experience the love of Christ. The Song of Songs helps us experience Christ. TALK ABOUT WHAT YOU EXPECT TO LEARN IN THE SONG OF SONGS.

> Song of Solomon Chapter 1 ¹ Solomon's Song of Songs

In this Song we can see "what is the width and length and depth and height" of the love of Christ. In the Song we can learn what it means "to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge".
In the Song we meet Jesus who "loved the church and gave himself for it" [Eph.5:25; Gal.2:20]. Christ exceeds Solomon in wealth, wisdom, kingdom, authority, glory, etc. The Song of Songs is the greatest of all the Biblical Songs. It is called the SONG of Songs. We see this in the HOLY of Holies.
Also, Jesus is the KING OF KINGS and LORD OF LORDS – the preeminent and greatest One. Some of the other songs in the Bible are:
1) Moses and the Israelites at the Red Sea (Exodus 15:1-18)
2) The Israelites after God supplied water (Numbers 21:16-18)
3) Moses when summoned to depart from this world (Deut. 32:1-43)
4) Deborah and Barak after the defeat of Sisera (Judges 5:1-31)
5) Hannah when the Lord promised her a son (1 Samuel 2:1-10)
6) David when bringing the Ark home (1 Chronicles 13:8)

7) David for all the mercies given him by God (2 Samuel 22:1-51)

8) The Israelites in captivity when asked to sing songs of Zion (Psalm 137)

9) Mary (Luke 1:46-55)

10) Zechariah (1:67-79)

11) Angels (Luke 2:13-14; Revelation 15:1-4; 19:1-8)

12) Your Song: "Sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done marvelous things" (Psa 98:1) WHY DO YOU THINK THE SONG OF SONGS IS THE GREATEST SONG?

Beloved ² Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth -

The bride speaks in words of passionate desire. She desires to have her longing fulfilled. A kiss can show affection, be a pledge of peace, be a token of reconciliation, or honor someone. Here, the kiss is showing real love. The "let him" shows submission [see Rev.22:17] (a Concordance study on "let him" can be done) "Kisses of his mouth" show intimacy. Christ's kisses have been called pardons, promises and seals of everlasting love. There is an intimacy of knowing someone as in Phil 3:10 "that I may know him". The more we truly love Christ – the more we will truly long for Christ's kisses. "To kiss the Son" in Psalm 2:12 is so important as a way to serve. Christ's grace, comfort, and love is displayed as He kisses us. [see 5:16 regarding "mouth" & Psalm 45:2 regarding "lips"] for your love is more delightful than wine.

Nothing is more delightful than Christ's love. We can enjoy Christ's love without fear. Wine creates drunkenness, danger, over-indulgence, and sin. Wine is momentary pleasure with consequences. Christ's love is everlasting with better results. Christ's love is good. It brings blessing, joy, and pleasure with no regret. Christ's love brings delight and is absolutely pure. Christians can experience his redeeming, adopting, preserving, sanctifying, and glorifying love. We also experience His forgiving, guiding, providing, instructing, discipling, and enduring love.

IS JESUS YOUR ONE AND ONLY DESIRE? WHY OR WHY NOT?

SPURGEON DEVOTIONS (verse 1:2) Read the devotions (in the next section) for homework. Spend time with scriptures, meditating, or writing what God shows you.

³ Pleasing is the fragrance of your perfumes;

Perfumes, ointments, and spices are used frequently in oriental countries. Used after washing because of the hot, sticky, dusty climate. Of Jesus, the "Anointed One", the psalmist says, "All your garments are scented with myrrh and aloes, and cassia." Psalm 45:8. In Matthew 2:11 we see gold for kingship; frankincense for deity, and myrrh for death. [see John 12:3; Luke 23:55; Ecclesiastes 7:1; Colossians 3:11] your name is like perfume poured out.

Christ's name poured out shows us Him freely giving of grace and His Spirit. His name is "the name above all names." He poured out His life for us even unto death. Christ's name is so sweet, so exciting, and thrilling to the Christian's soul. Repeat the name of JESUS and your heart begins to soar like an eagle. [John 3:34; Psalm 45:7, John 1:16]

No wonder the maidens love you!

These maidens or some versions "virgins" are mature believers. You can see the love in mature believers who have walked with and experienced Jesus for years. [see Rev.14:4; Matthew 5:8]

⁴ Take me away with you - let us hurry!

She wants to get away with Christ to be alone. She wants more than His kisses – she wants HIM. When we were dead in our transgressions we ran to him for forgiveness. As believers we run after Him for His continual love. [see Matt.11:12; Psalm 119:32; 63:8]

Let the king bring me into his chambers.

In oriental times, the chambers were the places of intimate entertainment for those the king cherished. What a joy to be brought into a place as wonderful as this - the chambers of Christ. In His chambers we experience Christ's intimacy, grace, love, attention, and enjoyment. Christ comforts and assures us in His chambers [see Psalm 27:5; 91:1]. WHAT IS SO SPECIAL ABOUT "CHRIST'S CHAMBERS" TO YOU?

We rejoice and delight in you;

She is speaking of her brothers and sisters in Christ who also delight in Christ. She is continuing to rejoice and delight in Christ. He is our joy and our delight. Everything about Jesus is worth rejoicing and delighting in. We rejoice in His person, work, offices, promises, blood, righteousness, power, authority, glories, kingdom, peace, life, existence, essence, love, etc. etc. [see 1 Peter 1:8]. WHAT DO YOU REJOICE IN MOST ABOUT CHRIST?

we will praise your love more than wine.

Christ's company and fellowship permeates love. His love flows better than wine. It is a wonderful fountain of endless delights.

How right they are to adore you!

We see that she understands why others adore Christ firsthand. She is not alone in her love for Jesus.

LESSON #2 BIBLE STUDY

⁵ Dark am I, yet lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem,

She addresses the daughters of Jerusalem here - the young in Christ. Being dark meant she was working. Her peers would have looked at her with their pale skin all perfumed. She would see herself also as being unworthy and having a deep sense of shame. These young in Christ must have looked at her in a wrong way. Yet she says she is lovely. Lovely because of Christ's loveliness. How often we feel ambivalent: in ourselves unlovely – with Christ lovely.

dark like the tents of Kedar, like the tent curtains of Solomon.

Kedar's tents were made from black or dark haired goatskin. The tents were further darkened by the sun like her. The curtains of Solomon speak of beauty and all a Christian is in Christ Jesus. Like tents of Kedar (unworthy, shameful). Like the tent curtains of Solomon (beauty in Christ). [see Psalm 45:11, 13]

⁶ Do not stare at me because I am dark, because I am darkened by the sun.

Being tanned and dark is referring spiritually to the Christian worker who receives heartache, sorrow, and rejection. The world is hostile. Even Jesus was beaten and rejected.

My mother's sons were angry with me

The mother's sons are those who claim to know Christ but have not the power (2 Tim.3:5). We are told to conform by others but we are to & must "stand out" for Christ.

and made me take care of the vineyards; my own vineyard I have neglected.

Keeping the vineyards was work for the poor (Jer.52:16). She got detoured from her own vineyard – she wasn't doing what Christ called her to do. Imagine what her vineyard looked like unattended to. IS YOUR VINEYARD (CHRISTIAN SERVICE) BEING ATTENDED TO?

> ⁷ Tell me, you whom I love, where you graze your flock and where you rest your sheep at midday.

Although our UNION with Christ is constant, our COMMUNION with him varies. In "you whom I love" we see Jesus as our dearly beloved, the One we love. Jesus captures all our desires, wants, and our whole being.
[see Acts 17:28; John 10:11; Heb.13:20; 1 Peter 5:4; John 10:16; 1 Pet.2:25; Isaiah 40:11] Here "graze" talks about feeding Christ's flock – His church. Notice the attention given to Christ; "you, you, your, you, your."

Why should I be like a veiled woman beside the flocks of your friends?

She desires not to be separated or detached from her beloved. She is jealous for her husband.

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

Daughters of Jerusalem ⁸ If you do not know,

These young babes in Christ or new believers speak here. They desire to follow in the tracks of the more mature believers and Christ's bride. They are saying that 'if you don't know then who does?' [see John 14:9; Col.2:10; John 1:16].

most beautiful of women,

The friends have heard of the beauty of the bride and see Christ in her. Even though she is not always aware of her beauty (1:5,6) others are [Psalm 45:2].

follow the tracks of the sheep and graze your young goats by the tents of the shepherds.

She (and we) are to follow the way of the other saints walking with God [Heb.6:12; 13:13]. We are to follow Christ's path not swerving to the right or left. We are to feed on the Word, guide the young into His Word, and be shepherded.

> Lover ⁹ I liken you, my darling,

The "lover" (Jesus) speaks for the first time. "My darling" can also be "my love", "my dearest", "my friend", or "my companion. It is worth mediating on what Jesus calls us. Jesus' love is real, sincere, unchanging, strong, powerful, perfect, and eternal. After the bride saw her self as "dark" in 1:5,6; this must delight her soul.

to a mare harnessed to one of the chariots of Pharaoh.

Jesus compares her to a mare. Horses were highly thought of. Horses nobles lines and graceful looks expressed beauty. These beautiful mares would have been very costly and well bred for the king. The king would have loved his beautiful horses. His heart would be set on them with pride. These horses, once wild & disobedient, would now be obedient, loving, and submissive. They would also be adorned with ornaments and decorations. Jesus likens her (us) to these beautiful, costly, submissive, and adorned horses.

¹⁰ Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels.

Christ has beautifully adorned us. Our adornments are seen in the Matt.5:1-12; Gal.5:22-25; and Col.3:12-17. The cheeks and neck start inwardly through Christ and manifest outwardly in our lives. [see Acts 4:13]

¹¹ We will make you earrings of gold, studded with silver.

The "WE" is the Trinity [see Gen.1:26]. Each member of the Godhead is involved in our sanctification, cleansing, and inner/outer beauty. [see Psalm 50:2; Psalm 84:11] TAKE SOME TIME TO WRITE YOUR THOUGHTS AT THIS POINT.

LESSON #3 BIBLE STUDY

Beloved

¹² While the king was at his table,

The king here is Christ [see Col.1:18]. They are together enjoying each other affectionately. She delights in the table but is more concerned with the king. He has captured her heart.

my perfume spread its fragrance.

The perfume is spikenard (pure nard) which is a rare, exotic, expensive perfume. It comes from a Himalayan plant in India. The fragrance is captivating and exotic [see John 12:3]. The effect of this fragrance would have been a delight to the King. The fragrance would revive our spiritual lives – making us the aroma of Christ [2 Cor.2:14, 15] CAN YOU BELIEVE THAT WE GIVE OFF THE FRAGRANCE OF CHRIST?

¹³ My lover is to me a sachet of myrrh resting between my breasts.

Myrrh is a resin/gum from a South Arabian tree. [It was an ingredient in the following verses: Ex.30:22-33; Matt.2:11; Mark 15:23; John 19:39]. "Between my breasts" talk how people would sometimes wear the myrrh in a small pouch next to

"Between my breasts" talk how people would sometimes wear the myrrh in a small pouch next to their body [see John 13:23; Eph.3:17].

"Resting" is the rest we find in Christ.

We are anointed by the Holy Spirit knowing in our heart that we have "rest" in Christ.

"The sachet of myrrh" was used in Esther 2:12 as part of the preparation for the king.

We have been made acceptable and presentable to the Father through the blood of Jesus.

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

¹⁴ My lover is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi.

Henna (camphire) is a common Palestinian shrub producing fragrant blossoms.
These blossoms once crushed make a dye of bright orange-yellow color.
En Gedi is a lush oasis that produced the finest perfumes.
The henna is really the "root" or "source" showing atonement, propitiation (sacrifice), ransom, and covering.
The cluster shows & adds the strength and impact in this verse.
We must never forget that Christ is even greater than the fragrance of all the spices of the orient.
"In whom (Christ) are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." (Col.2:3) [Col.3:11].
He has prepared a table for us here, in the wilderness, and in heaven [Ps.23:5-6; Rev.3:20].
ARE YOU ENJOYING CHRIST'S TABLE NOW?

Lover

¹⁵ How beautiful you are, my darling! Oh, how beautiful! Your eyes are doves.

Note the repetition of "how beautiful" to give impact. Jesus loves the beauty of our eyes, the softness of a dove in our character. Eyes are the window to the soul. Hearts filled with Jesus display eyes radiant, soft, and loving.

> Beloved ¹⁶ How handsome you are, my lover! Oh, how charming!

She is so proud of the beauty of her Lover Christ just as we should be. "How charming" (pleasant, fair, beautiful) refers in general terms to Christ in every way. His person, work, offices, doctrines, promises, ordinances are all beautiful to her. How Christ communicates His love, grace, work, and beauty touches her. She is charmed!!

And our bed is verdant.

"Verdant" is "green" symbolizing restfulness and fruitfulness. The green focuses on the canopy of leafy branches which give shade and privacy. ARE YOU LAYING IN GREEN PASTURES WITH CHRIST?

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

Lover ¹⁷ The beams of our house are cedars; our rafters are firs.

The cedar and the fir show the bigger pictures of the permanence and delightfulness of the communion with Christ and His beloved. The house is temporary here but being prepared for permanence in heaven. If Jesus can give new hearts then imagine the house He is preparing for us [John 14:1-5; Isaiah 33:17]. WRITE ANY THOUGHTS YOU HAVE AT THIS POINT.

LESSON #4 BIBLE STUDY

Song of Solomon 2 Lover (continues) ¹ I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

Christ here is speaking of Himself. It is alright for the one "who is over all, the eternally blessed God" (Rom.9:5) to declare His own praises. He is God over all!! Sharon was a fertile area where flocks and herds were kept and vines were fruitful. Sharon was famous for its roses – the best and rarest of all. The rose here is an extraordinary flower. The "lily" here shows us Christ's purity [1 Peter 1:19; Heb.7:27] Jesus, the Almighty Son of God compares Himself to a rose and a lily. Imagine, wonderful God comparing Himself this way. Powerful humility! [Philippians 2:6-8; John 1:3; Heb.1:6; Isa.6:2; John 12:41; John 1:14]. Sharon was rich in flowers showing us that Christ is to be walked up to, partaken of, and enjoyed [Matthew 11:28; John 4:13-14; John 6:35; John 3:16; Revelation 22:17].

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

² Like a lily among thorns is my darling among the maidens.

Here Christ speaks of His church. The maidens are the mature believers again. Christ as the lily birthed us as lilies – we bear His name. We used to be thorns, dead in our transgressions. Now we are a new creation and we walk among those who don't know Christ. [Phil.1:23; 1 John 3:3]

Beloved ³ Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest is my lover among the young men.

It may be the citron which was well known for its thick dark-green leaves (shelter), its white blossoms, and delicious, refreshing, fragrant, golden fruit. You wouldn't see an apple tree among the "trees of the forest" but in a garden or orchard. But Jesus "stands out". He stands alone. No one or nothing compares with Him. HOW DOES CHRIST "STAND OUT" IN YOUR LIFE?

I delight to sit in his shade, and his fruit is sweet to my taste.

To delight is to thoroughly and intensely enjoy something. His "shade" keeps us from sun scorched days giving safety, security, and shelter. Once we have tasted and seen that the Lord is good we desire to partake of Him again and again [Col.2:9-10; 2:3; Romans 9:5; Rev.5:12] Also imagine the Good Samaritan coming along and saving the man at the side of the road. He needed shade and refreshment. Jesus provides every spiritual blessing and is our "apple tree". Jesus is "a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat" (Isa.25:4) [1 Thess1:10; 1 Pet.3:18].

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

⁴ He has taken me to the banquet hall,

The banquet hall (house of wine) is the grand hall of the palace where the wine is enjoyed. Jesus has brought/taken His bride there.

Remember "His chambers" (1:4); "His table" (1:12); and now "His banquet hall". This feast is really for everyone to enjoy. It is beyond words [1 Peter 1:8; John 10:10]. Nothing in the world can surpass the wonderful Gospel and the fruit of Christ's Spirit. We can indulge, not in wine, but new wine – the Holy Spirit with all His pleasures and grace. We are invited, brought in, sat down, loved, and His to enjoy. This is a prelude to our heavenly, eternal feast. WHAT DO YOU THINK OUR HEAVENLY FEAST WILL BE LIKE?

and his banner over me is love.

Banner means "to cover" and here we see her exclaiming how He covers her with His love – his conquering, protecting, and possessive love [Heb.2:10; Ps.110:3; Eph.3:17-19; John 17:24].

⁵ Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples,

"Strengthen me" also means "sustain" (prop up, support, or uphold). There is a longing here for more of His love. The raisins and apples are symbolic of refreshment from Christ. All He gives is refreshing, new, energizing, and empowering. He is our refreshment, newness, energy, empowerment, life and breath.

for I am faint with love.

Faint with love also means "sick with love". The language here changes because she becomes overwhelmed and His love is almost unbearable. How often we long for so much more of Christ. Yet we long for more here and wait for His uninhibited love in heaven. We are "faint with love" for His love.

⁶ His left arm is under my head, and his right arm embraces me.

Jesus hears her desire for Him and comes to her. He supports and embraces His beloved. Jesus seeing our need and hearing our pleas always comes and supports and embraces us. He gives comfort, sympathy, provision, sustenance, invigorating power, & strength. We need to pray that our experience will become more and more a reality [Isa.40:29; 42:3]. He holds us in his arms (everlasting arms) & holds us in His hands [John 3:29; 10:27-30].

⁷ Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you

The "daughters of Jerusalem are the young in Christ. To "charge" someone is to have a deep and sincere sense of urgency. We need this same urgency for the young in Christ and those without Christ.

by the gazelles and by the does of the field:

Gazelles are common in Israel. There are red, fallow, and roe species of deer in biblical lands. Represent attractiveness, quietness, and the ability to start quickly [Proverbs 5:19].

Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

She is so engulfed in Jesus that she wants to remain in this condition and have nothing wreck it. Ah, prayer that goes on and on - the presence of God. And the continual presence of God in heaven to look forward to!!! [Jude 21; Prov.4:23; James 4:7; Col.3:5; Col.3:1-3]. MAKE SOME NOTES HERE ABOUT WHAT YOU'VE BEEN SHOWN.

LESSON #5 BIBLE STUDY

⁸ Listen! My lover! Look!

The bride has rejoiced in Jesus (v.3), rejoiced in His work (v.4), and been overwhelmed by His love (v.5-6). Now, Jesus withdraws Himself. Sometimes He withdraws Himself for a short time – sometimes for a long time. After withdrawing Himself, He comes to her again. "Listen" is for His sheep to hear His voice! "My lover" is heavy on the "MY". "Lover" is "who He is to her". "Look" is to use the "eyes of our heart" also. She "looks forward" to Him also. Notice how she becomes alive again after a season of withdrawal. He is always what we need.

Here he comes, leaping across the mountains, bounding over the hills.

"Leaping" and "bounding" (skipping) show speed, anticipation, and pleasure. We also see the divine overcoming of obstacles enabling Him to come to us with ease. He has overcome the world [Matt.1:21; John 16:33]. We "leap for joy" because Christ has "unbound us" and "set us free". WHAT HAS CHRIST UNBOUND YOU FROM OR WANTS TO UNBIND YOU FROM?

⁹ My lover is like a gazelle or a young stag.

The gazelle shows swiftness [2 Sam.2:18; 1 Chron.12:8]. He is swift to come when we turn our eyes and ears toward Him.

Look! There he stands behind our wall, gazing through the windows, peering through the lattice.

"Look" shows He's moved closer. He now stands behind our wall. First He is "gazing" and then He is "peering". You can feel the anticipation rising in Him. The lattice would be a wooden frame that could easily be looked through with His peering eyes.

¹⁰ My lover spoke and said to me,

Notice in verses 8,9,10 she uses "MY lover". She has been bought with His blood, and she is His possession. And He is her lover [Eph.5:25; Gal.2:20].

Lover ''Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, and come with me.

Here we see "MY" again twice. There is such an enjoyment of each other. "Come" is frequently used throughout Scriptures. What an invitation to "come with me." And we say, "Yes, Lord. Yes, Lord. Yes, Lord. Yes, Lord. Yes, Lord. [Rev.22:17; Isaiah 55:1, 2; etc.].

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

¹¹ See! The winter is past;

Now we enter into "spring" as "the winter is past".

the rains are over and gone.

The only appearance of "winter" in the OT is here. This would be the rainy season in Palestine.

¹² Flowers appear on the earth;

After the rainy season everything would "spring" up in beauty and wonder.

the season of singing has come,

Spring is also the season of singing. The heart turns to love. He rejoices over us with singing [Zeph.3:17]. Can you hear Him rejoicing over you?

the cooing of doves is heard in our land.

Doves (turtle-doves) is a bird that migrates (different from 1:15). It's very noticeable "cooing" is a sign of spring. Don't our hearts sing for our Lord? Do you notice your heart singing to Christ?

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

¹³ The fig tree forms its early fruit;

The fig tree (and vines) are emblems of prosperity and fruitfulness. Marvelous fruit – this fig tree was not cursed for it bore fruit. This was a picture of Christ coming to His own and seeing no fruit. We as the Church are to bear fruit – fruit that will remain.

the blossoming vines spread their fragrance.

What could be more aromatic after a long, rainy winter than the fragrance of blossoming vines. When our senses become dulled, Christ comes in and invigorates us. We are the aroma of Christ because of His presence. As the bird is in the air; so the air is in the bird.

Arise, come, my darling; my beautiful one, come with me."

This section ends as it started in verse 10. Can you feel yourself "arising", "coming" and "going with Christ"? The repetition again shows earnestness and perseverance on Christ's part [2 Thess.3:5; Heb.12:3]. There is the "winter of our soul" which are the dark cold times. But "spring" is coming and God is desiring to birth something new [Isaiah 43:18,19].

LESSON #6 BIBLE STUDY

Lover (continues) ¹⁴ My dove

Here we see Christ's tender and affectionate love for us in calling us "my dove". We see beauty, chastity, faithfulness, helplessness, meekness, humility [Psalm 68:13]. Faithfulness - a dove only has one mate. We are to be totally devoted to Him [2 Cor.11:2]. A dove is alluring and can lure other doves. No one comes to the Son unless the Father draws them. In the same way, the Holy Spirit uses as vessels of honor fit for the Master's service.

in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places on the mountainside,

It is interesting to know that "doves" (us) often hide in these kinds of places [John 13:23]. What a joy that even though we may be shy and afraid, we can find Christ's closeness here. Christ is our hiding place [Psalm 32:7; Isaiah 28:17].

show me your face, let me hear your voice;

In our fear and timidity in hiding Christ still longs to see our face and hear our voice. He wants to look upon us and hear our gentle dove-like cooing. We can be like a baby taken away from a mother's breast – content and satisfied. Jesus gently draws us into a state of fellowship. ARE YOU SOMETIMES AFRAID TO SHOW JESUS YOUR FACE?

for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.

What an amazing thing that our voice is sweet and our face lovely to Christ. Those who feel "ugly", "flawed", or "not worthy" should meditate on this truth. Didn't Jesus create us? He doesn't make "junk". We can't even imagine how much sweeter and lovelier we will be in our glorified state. LET JESUS HEAR YOUR SWEET VOICE AND SEE YOUR LOVELY FACE.

¹⁵ Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that ruin the vineyards, our vineyards that are in bloom.

With Christ's love comes a warning against the "foxes" – the little sins that come between us and Jesus. These are the sins of omission and commission. The foxes come to rob, kill, and destroy. Foxes can be jealous demonic forces that try to rule through our sin nature. In order to stay in fellowship with Christ we need to deal with sin immediately, repent, and walk afresh with our Lover. Humility – repentance – then no shame/condemnation – beautiful fellowship. Our vineyards (ministries) are in bloom. We must "catch the foxes" when they surface. The foxes are "sly" but Jesus is "all wisdom" and "knowledge".
"So I say, live in the Spirit and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature." [Gal.5:16].

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

Beloved ¹⁶ My lover is mine and I am his;

What a joy to be able to say that we are totally Christ's and Christ is totally ours. Our "union and communion" with Christ and His with us [1 Cor.3:23; John 17:10] he browses among the lilies.

The LILY (Jesus) is browsing among the LILIES (His people). Immanuel "God is with us." We see Jesus walking in the cool of the day when seeking out Adam and Eve [Genesis 3:8]. A good husband always desires to bring blessing and encouragement to his wife. A good wife always desires to bring blessings and encouragement to her husband. ARE YOU ALLOWING JESUS TO BROWSE WITH YOU DAILY?

¹⁷ Until the day breaks and the shadows flee, turn, my lover, and be like a gazelle or like a young stag on the rugged hills.

Here the bride speaks to her Lover directly. "Breaks" (cools, breathes, blows) gives the idea of the day growing cool as the evening breezes come. All day long – or to the ends of the day. She desires nothing to separate her from Him. Again, she uses "MY". Again she recalls and desires Him from Chapter 2:8,9. We can also relate this to Christ's first coming and second coming. In His first coming He came as a suffering servant TO PAY FOR His bride through His death on the cross. In His second coming He will come FOR His bride at the Rapture. When the day is right He will return [Rom.13:12; Rev.22:20]. DOES CHRIST'S SECOND COMING EXCITE YOU?

LESSON #7 BIBLE STUDY

Song of Solomon 3¹ All night long on my bed I looked for the one my heart loves;

This has been interpreted by some as a bad dream or nightmare. After wonderful fellowship can you imagine her fear and dread at losing Him. She searches for Him all night on her bed. Throughout the dream she is looking for Him. "The one my heart loves". He is the One and Only. The Only Begotten. He is the Eternal One.

I looked for him but did not find him.

We see the word "looked" again here. She is tenacious in finding where He's gone and how to find Him. Here we see that season of every Christian's life – "the dark night of the soul". This is a season when we feel Jesus has totally left us. We try to live our life for Christ but He seems so absent sometimes. We need to remember our UNION with Christ never changes but our COMMUNION does. Our Communion can be affected by our heart condition or outward circumstances. In this state we begin to ask "where is Jesus?", "what has happened to Him?" and we "LOOK". We can go through much searching without finding Him.

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

² I will get up now

She sets her mind and heart to search for Him. She is determined and tired of His absence. "I looked", "I looked", and "I will get up now". She has experienced the king & she misses Him.

and go about the city, through its streets and squares; I will search for the one my heart loves.

We see the urgency here. The need of Him. Her carnal ways, her worldly ways, her flesh has made her dry and she wants to drink of the fountain of life. She goes through the city with its streets and squares. Any area she might have lost Him at.

What did I do to Him? What happened to us? You can feel the despair, regret, and remorse. Jesus withdraws for many reasons. Sometimes to heal us from laziness, to deliver us from the world, to teach us to hate sin, to humble us through desertion as Christ was, and to show us the joy of His return now and at His Second Coming (1 Thess.4:17).

So I looked for him but did not find him.

Initially she doesn't find Him. She is being tested and proved. She is walking with the great saints through all the ages who have experienced the same hunger for Him.

³ The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city. ''Have you seen the one my heart loves?''

These watchmen are the ones who watch over Christ's body. These watchmen too have been challenged like her and have walked before her. These watchmen understand the "dark night of the soul". They are ministers of the Gospel [Heb.13:7; Eph.4:11-16; Rev.1:20; 2:1; Acts 20:28]. In order to help others find Christ, ministers must have found Him themselves. They must have found Christ at the cross upon salvation and later during "the dark night of the soul." HAVE WATCHMEN EVER FOUND YOU AND MINISTERED TO YOU?

⁴ Scarcely had I passed them when I found the one my heart loves.

Ah, found at last. She has sought, sought a multitude of counselors, and He has been found. He is never far from one who diligently seeks Him. [Jer.29:13-14].

I held him and would not let him go

"Held", "gripped", "glued myself to Him", "held with all my might", etc. She really wants Him and does not want to experience His lose again. CAN YOU IMAGINE NOT BEING WITH CHRIST?

> till I had brought him to my mother's house, to the room of the one who conceived me.

The mother's house is her mother who shared Christ with her. It could even be the church itself. She brings Christ to the Church to share Him with the whole family of God [Eph.3:14-21]. She was conceived (the new birth) in the Church. WHERE AND UNDER WHAT CIRCUMSTANCES WERE YOU CONCEIVED?

MAKE SOME NOTES REGARDING THIS CHAPTER.

LESSON #8 BIBLE STUDY

⁵ Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you by the gazelles and by the does of the field: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

She is restored and does not want to be disturbed so that nothing will interfere with her communion with Him. She learns to be more careful so that He won't withdraw again. Hopefully, she has learnt her lesson through this season. Therefore the "charge" to the young in Christ.

Daughters of Jerusalem ⁶ Who is this coming up from the desert

The young in Christ are witnessing something wonderful here. They have just been "charged" in the previous verse – this prompted them to see a deeper view of Christ and His church. Christ is coming out of the "desert" or "wilderness" where He delivered His bride. The bride has been brought out of the wildernesses of "sin and slavery" and "this world" [2 Cor.3:18]. The daughters are straining to see what is going to happen next – anticipation prevails. It is time for the WEDDING PROCESSION. We see throughout these verses now a royal, eastern style wedding.

like a column of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and incense made from all the spices of the merchant?

The "column of smoke" is incense being burnt at the head of the procession – rising like columns or pillars to the sky. Incense is often represented to be prayers of the saints in the Bible. Myrrh was a component of the holy oil in Exodus 30:23.
"Incense" (frankincense) being talked about as a gift given at Christ's birth [Matt.2:1]. Remember the pillar of cloud that led the people through the wilderness. The people are perfumed (holy throughout) and nothing can prevent them from arriving safely in glory with Christ forever. Here the daughters of Jerusalem are more and more enthralled by the bride's beauty and grace given her [2 Thess.1:7,10].
DO YOU BELIEVE YOU ARE HOLY BECAUSE OF CHRIST?
WE ARE HOLY POSITIONALLY & CHRIST IS BRINGING THIS INTO OUR EXPERIENCE ON A DAILY BASIS [PHILIPPIANS 1:6].

Beloved ⁷ Look! It is Solomon's carriage,

The bride leaps in now and responds with a "LOOK" to the onlookers. She begins to direct their gaze to CHRIST [John 3:30; Col.1:18]. The carriage is a kind of traveling couch or bed – a glorified chair. It shows us the contentment and rest of the husband and wife. Everything is "ours" in Christ but everything proceeds from HIM.

escorted by sixty warriors, the noblest of Israel,

Eastern wedding processions might take hours, might be at night with torches, and would have an escort or armored guard.

⁸ all of them wearing the sword, all experienced in battle, each with his sword at his side, prepared for the terrors of the night.

The escort is ready for action since an ambush might take place in which to destroy the wedding, steal the jewelry, or kidnap someone. Satan is working running "to and fro" but Christ is always at work to protect and secure His bride. This bride is given full honor and expense. Nothing is withheld. She is well attended (saints & angels) [1 Peter 1:5; Jude 1; Psalms 34:7; John 10:30]. Security gives serenity. IMAGINE HERE THE SCENE. IF YOU LOVE TO DRAW TAKE SOME TIME AND DRAW A PICTURE BELOW.

LESSON #9 BIBLE STUDY

⁹ King Solomon made for himself the carriage; he made it of wood from Lebanon.

This carriage, grand as it was, was made by Solomon (type of Christ). We are the workmanship of Christ's hands, He holds us in His hands, His hands were nailed to the cross, and He awaits with open hands for us at the Second Coming. "The wood" could be seen as the cross – perfect salvation.

¹⁰ Its posts he made of silver, its base of gold. Its seat was upholstered with purple, its interior lovingly inlaid by the daughters of Jerusalem.

Only the best materials were provided. "Lord you are more precious than silver, Lord you are more costly than gold. Lord you are more beautiful than diamonds, And nothing I desire compares with you." IF YOU KNOW THIS KEITH GREEN SONG THEN TAKE TIME TO SING IT.

The daughters of Jerusalem show their love – lovingly inlaying the interior. Can you see a picture of them carefully and articulately laying the interior in the carriage. They've been bought by the precious blood of Christ. "What can I ever give back to the Lord?" [1 John 4:19]. Remember David when he built an altar talking to Araunah saying, "No, I insist on paying you for it. I will not sacrifice to the Lord my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing." [2 Samuel 24:24]. WHAT HAVE YOU "LOVING INLAID" FOR CHRIST?

¹¹ Come out, you daughters of Zion, and look at King Solomon

The daughters of Zion (Jerusalem) are about to witness the BIG DAY. This is the culmination of the whole ceremony to WITNESS CHRIST and Christ displaying His bride [Rev.19:7]. The king should be witnessed in all of His majesty. He came first as a suffering servant and was crowned with thorns. Next He will come as a triumphant king and wear the crown of glory. Peter, James, and John beheld His majesty at the Transfiguration. How much greater will Christ be at His Second Coming? The bride – the bride of Christ will also be beautiful at the wedding day [Psalm 45:13; Isaiah 60:5; Isaiah 62:3; Eph.5:27; Jude 24; 1 Cor.4:9]. She will be dressed in the beauty of Christ – not her own. CAN YOU EXPRESS IN WORDS THE BEAUTY OF CHRIST'S GLORY?

wearing the crown, the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding,

The mother here is the true church of Christ, the bride herself. Revelation 12 gives a strange symbolic vision – the church is pictured as a woman giving birth to "a male child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron [Rev.12:5]. It is reference to Jesus, God from the bosom of the Father, is declared from the human side as coming from an earthly line, the line of David to redeem men [also Mark 3:35].

the day his heart rejoiced.

Many things give Christ pleasure in His heart. But this will be the greatest day – the Wedding Day! "The joy set before him" (Heb.12:2) is what kept Jesus going to the cross [Isa. 62:5; 61:10]. Jesus is greater than Solomon (Matthew 12:42). Jesus has greater wealth than Solomon. Solomon was a great king but Jesus is King of kings (Rev.19:16). His works are greater than Solomon for He created all things (John 1:3). Solomon's kingdom was exceptional (2 Chron.9:26) but Christ's is an everlasting dominion (Daniel 7:13-14; Psalm 72:17). Solomon's name means "peace" and his original name Jedidiah means " beloved of God" but Christ is the "Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9:6) and the Father declared on more than one occasion, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:17).

Jesus stands alone as the King of eternity and King of life. WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO YOU TO HAVE JESUS AS YOUR KING?

LESSON #10 BIBLE STUDY

Song of Solomon 4 Lover ¹ How beautiful you are, my darling! Oh, how beautiful!

From verse 1 – 15 of this chapter we hear the LOVER expressing His love for His bride. We see His love, delight, and desire for her. And we see her preciousness and sweetness to Him. Christ repeats 1:15 to show His consistency in His love. As He looks upon her, He is overwhelmed by her beauty. This is immediately after the wedding day.

Your eyes behind your veil are doves.

From behind her veil, He sees her shining eyes focused upon Him. Her eyes meet His. These eyes are the gentle, loving, giving eyes of a dove. YOU CAPTIVATE CHRIST. DO YOU BELIEVE THAT?

Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from Mount Gilead.

Imagine long, black, shiny and wavy goat hair. It has the fineness of silk. Consider a large flock of these goats covering the hillside as they descend [1 Pet.3:4; Matt.3:16].

² Your teeth are like a flock of sheep just shorn, coming up from the washing. Each has its twin; not one of them is alone.

What a beautiful sight to see the whiteness of these sheep just washed after been shorn. In this we see purity in the shearing and washing; unity in the mention of each sheep having a twin, and fruitfulness that they are not alone or barren.

³ Your lips are like a scarlet ribbon; your mouth is lovely.

The healthy luscious lips likened to strand (cord or ribbon) of scarlet or red. Pale lips would show sickness while these red lips show healthiness. The mouth signifies the sweet words of the Christian expressing their love for Christ and purity of speech [Psalm 19:14; Mal.3:16; Eph.4:29; Heb.13:15]. HOW CAN THE PRAYER OF PSALM 19:14 BE ANSWERED?

Your temples behind your veil are like the halves of a pomegranate.

This area on the upper part of the cheeks would be red like the slices of pomegranates. We can see the fresh, lively, rosiness, and vigor of her. She is beautiful in His sight. Maybe a slight blush in front of her husband that draws out more of His grace and love for her. HAVE YOU EVER BLUSHED BEFORE CHRIST AS HE STARED AT YOU?

⁴ Your neck is like the tower of David, built with elegance; on it hang a thousand shields, all of them shields of warriors.

She is elegant, stately, and refined. We can imagine the tower adorned with shields of mighty men. One day in your court is like a thousand elsewhere walking with the King.

⁵ Your two breasts are like two fawns, like twin fawns of a gazelle that browse among the lilies.

We see the tender, warm, delightful, and desirable youth of the bride [Prov.5:19; Eph.5:25-27]. HOW COULD YOUR LOVE TO & FOR CHRIST BE MORE TENDER, WARM, DELIGHTFUL & DESIRABLE?

LESSON #11 BIBLE STUDY

⁶ Until the day breaks and the shadows flee,

The bride spoke these similar words in 2:17. They both speak the same language.

I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of incense.

Here we see a MEETING PLACE being talked about. A place for uninterrupted and unhindered enjoyment of each other's company. He delights and desires to meet. Can we not see Jesus interceding for His saints and His saints sending up fragrant incense to Him? Yet they are in total and complete union [Psalm 45:10-11].

⁷ All beautiful you are, my darling; there is no flaw in you.

As God desired a sacrifice without spot, blemish or flaw so we see here how Jesus' sacrifice was perfect. We see that through Christ's blood we have been made "flawless" [1 Cor.1:30; Eph.1:4]. Meditate on this: THERE IS NO FLAW IN YOU. This is how Jesus sees you.

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

⁸ Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.

Now He calls her "MY BRIDE" or spouse. It is used often now and very intimate. "Come with me" is repeated twice. There is a sense of deep want.

Descend from the crest of Amana, from the top of Senir, the summit of Hermon, from the lions' dens and the mountain haunts of the leopards.

From the top of this area Canaan could be seen. The believer is looking to a better place. A place safe from "the lions and leopards" that would destroy peace and communion with Him [Psalm 91:1; Isa.35:9; Phil.1:23].

DO YOUR THOUGHTS OFTEN TURN TO ETERNITY WITH CHRIST IN HEAVEN?

⁹ You have stolen my heart, my sister, my bride; you have stolen my heart with one glance of your eyes, with one jewel of your necklace.

"Stolen my heart" (or "ravished my heart") is mentioned twice here. His heart has been captured by her loving eyes and the delightful beauty of her ornaments. His heart stolen by meeting the eyes of His beloved. Captivated, drawn in, and submissive love by both. Again we see the intimacy of eastern culture in "sister" and the repetition of "bride". TAKE A MOMENT TO STOP & GLANCE AT JESUS. YOU'VE STOLEN HIS HEART.

¹⁰ How delightful is your love, my sister, my bride!

Notice how He praises her love. Our love is praised by God. Even though our love is not perfect, He still loves it!!

How much more pleasing is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your perfume than any spice!

First He praised her love and now He praises her graces; her spiritual graces and virtues such as the fruit of the Spirit, Christ-likeness, and how He is glorified through her (similar to 1:2,3) [Gal.4:19; Titus 2:10].

¹¹ Your lips drop sweetness as the honeycomb, my bride;

Now He praises her words (2:14). Imagine the honeycomb dripping honey so rich, thick, sweet and slowly. Jesus loves the words of a gentle, quiet spirit [Prov.16:24] milk and honey are under your tongue.

He now praises her thoughts and meditations – the things under the tongue – [Ps.19:14; 139:1-6]. Milk and honey are what God promised the Israelites – a land flowing with milk and honey. Milk and honey was good, wholesome, refreshing, nourishing, and pure just like us.

The fragrance of your garments is like that of Lebanon.

Now He praises her works – righteousness as a garment [Isa.61:10]. Sanctification is in view – robes of righteousness – which causes good works. Lebanon was full of different varieties of trees with many scents. Remember Jacob's clothing – how his father loved the smell [Gen.27:27]. She is a bride that has been bought at a price and is dearly loved [Eph.2:8-10; 1 Cor.4:7].

LESSON #12 BIBLE STUDY

¹² You are a garden locked up, my sister, my bride;

Here we are introduced to a "garden". Solomon made many gardens and orchards [Ecc.2:5-6]. Palaces had tremendous gardens. They were usually enclosed or hedged in for privacy. Only the owner and those He wished could come and enjoy. Often eastern wives would be kept in these gardens for their delight and the delight of their husband. A garden here describes the church – beautiful and giving pleasure to the owner. The garden is "enclosed" because we belong to Christ alone as He has bought us [John 6:37; John 15:19; Psa.4:3; Col.3:3].

you are a spring enclosed, a sealed fountain.

Being enclosed and sealed show us the church's safety, protection, separation, distinctiveness, purity, and character. Christ loves to dwell with a church like that. You can picture Christ walking amongst His garden that is sealed by His Holy Spirit [Isa.58:11; Jer.31;12; Eph.1:13; 4:30].

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

¹³ Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates with choice fruits,

The church is a fragrant, aromatic garden "with choice fruits" (fruitfulness). THIS IS HOW CHRIST SEES HIS CHURCH – CAN YOU SEE IT?

with henna and nard,

¹⁴ nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree, with myrrh and aloes and all the finest spices.

Now saffron, calamus, cinnamon, and aloes have been added to henna, nard, frankincense (incense), myrrh, and pomegranates. Note the 9 representing each one the "fruit of the Spirit". These do not grow naturally in Palestinian Gardens. Natural is sin. But supernatural is the product of divine grace [Isaiah 61:3].

¹⁵ You are a garden fountain, a well of flowing water streaming down from Lebanon.

We see life, refreshment, fertility, and abundance which is what flows out of Christ into His church. This would also water many gardens and have outward effects [John 7:37-39]. The church is shut up and sealed by Christ for Himself. From every believer life flows so that Christ is glorified through His church [Eph.3:8-13; John 4:14].

Beloved ¹⁶ Awake, north wind, and come, south wind!

We now have the bride speaking for the first time in this chapter. We see her wanting more of the Holy Spirit while in His garden. The "wind" is the Holy Spirit [Eze.37:9-revival; John 3:8-regeneration; Acts 2:2-Pentecost]. The wind and Holy Spirit are powerful, unseen, and yet cause great outcomes. They revive, cool, refresh, and are very needed especially in a dry and parched land. The north wind is a cold wind Here we see conviction, awakening, and exposing [John 16:8]. The south wind is warming, kindling, healing, refreshing, comforting {Eph.3:16}. The north wind needs to "awake" the church. The south wind need to "come" upon the church. STOP AND PRAY FOR THE NORTH AND SOUTH WIND TO "AWAKE".

Blow on my garden, that its fragrance may spread abroad.

Here is a request from the bride for Christ's breath to blow on her garden so that she will be cleansed (sanctified) and her spiritual life fruitful. She also desires for the fragrance to be spread "abroad" or to the ends of the earth.

Let my lover come into his garden and taste its choice fruits.

She wants more of Jesus. She wants Him to come into His garden and "taste its choice fruits". THE CHURCH NEEDS "LET MY LOVER COME INTO HIS GARDEN". HOW CAN WE LET CHRIST INTO THE CHURCH MORE?

Song of Solomon 5 Lover ¹ I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride;

Christ is in the garden (His church). He has come quickly and without delay. He was there anyways but now His presence is felt. DO YOU KNOW CHRIST IS WITH YOU EVEN IF HE IS NOT FELT?

I have gathered my myrrh with my spice. I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey; I have drunk my wine and my milk.

Wine and milk were often mixed in this culture [see Isaiah 55:1]. They have "gathered" for a celebration. They have "eaten" at a feast. They have "drunk" at a banquet [Rev.3:20]. Can you sense and feel the utter delight of Christ to be with His bride here. Not only in fellowship but "gathering, eating, and drinking together". This is answered prayer from the bride in 4:16.

Eat, O friends, and drink; drink your fill, O lovers.

He wants all His friends to share His joy [John 15:9-16; v.11,15]. Oh to be called a "friend" of God!!! The perfect friend, Jesus, teaching us to be His friend [Heb.1:4; 1 Pet.1:12; Psalm 45:7; Heb.2:11; Isa.25:6; Psalm 36:8]

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

Beloved ² I slept but my heart was awake.

Here we see another bad night by the bride. She has been indifferent, careless, and nonchalant to Christ. She has caused Him to leave for a season again leaving her empty.
Here she is partially awake and partially asleep. Not really dreaming but not really awake.
To have "slept" and to be "awake" is a picture of our relationship with Christ. We sleep around Christ in our daily walk. We awake to our need and love for Him [Matthew 26:41].
HOW CAN BE "WAKE UP" TO CHRIST ON A DAILY BASIS?

Listen!

Ah, He is here. He recognizes her condition. He comes!! CAN YOU HEAR CHRIST? CAN YOU SENSE HIM?

My lover is knocking: Lover ''Open to me, my sister, my darling, my dove, my flawless one. My head is drenched with dew, my hair with the dampness of the night.''

Here He knocks. He knocks on the door. She finally hears His knocking as she draws close. He speaks with affection, love, and sweetness wanting to be together.

"My sister" (family bonds of love); "my darling" (deep love); "my dove" (gentle purity). He is not blaming or condemning. She knows she has been wrong [Job1:8; Psa.37:7].

"Open to me" is a heart calling out to be responded to. How can we continually say "no" to His loving heart wanting a response?

In "drenched with dew" and "the dampness of the night" we can imagine a husband being shut outside the door or locked out on a rainy night.

How disgraceful for a husband to be locked out!! Yet He never departs but "knocks" repeatedly.

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

Beloved ³ I have taken off my robe – must I put it on again? I have washed my feet – must I soil them again?

But the bride responds saying that she is retired for the night. She makes excuses but really she is "unwilling". She has made a choice. How we make excuse after excuse when Christ knocks [Luke 12:35; Luke 14:15-24; Rom.13:11; Eph.5:14; 1 Thess.5:6]. This is shades of how we treat our missionaries, "Put Uriah in the front line where the fighting is fiercest. Then withdraw from him so he will be struck down and die." (Samuel 11:15). Can you see the picture of the church sending out the missionary to do the hard work and then "withdrawing" from them so they will be struck down and die. Why let them be struck down and die? Because the reports of the needs, miracles, and moving of God are "convicting hearts." (imagine David's heart when the Spirit convicted him as Nathan talked (see Psalm 51).

LESSON #14 BIBLE STUDY

⁴ My lover thrust his hand through the latch-opening; my heart began to pound for him.

The groom is thrusting his hand (although the heart is the motivating/driving force) through the latch-opening. After all it is His house. He has bought and paid for it with His blood. As she sees His hand thrust through she begins to be deeply aroused. Her heart began to "pound" for Him. She has been deeply aroused and moved by His love – His unrelenting love. She has been convicted and moved [2 Cor.7:10].

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

⁵ I arose to open for my lover, and my hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with flowing myrrh, on the handles of the lock.

It is amazing that even while she has not fully turned her heart back to Him, she calls Him "her lover". What reassurance that her position never changes. Here she is still enamored with the "myrrh". He, just HIM, has not totally stolen her heart. She is side tracked by the myrrh. Sometimes we get sidetracked by the "gifts instead of the giver". We need to realize that He is the "essence" of every good and perfect gift. HOW CAN WE MAKE CHRIST "OUR LIFE"?

> ⁶ I opened for my lover, but my lover had left; he was gone. My heart sank at his departure.

Imagine her shock to see that He is gone. Her lover knew her heart completely. She had delayed and her heart was more involved in the "gifts than the giver" [Eccl.9:10; Psalm 119:60]. What a surprise and shock and disappointment – her "heart sank" at his departure. She cannot stand it. She has tasted and seen that the Lord is good. She must do something. Christ's love is compelling her. She is being drawn to do something – to stop the idleness. WHAT MOTIVATES CHRISTIANS TO SERVE CHRIST?

I looked for him but did not find him. I called him but he did not answer.

Is she looking in the wrong places? Is her heart not right with God? Is she not hearing her Husband's voice? Has she truly learned the lesson?

⁷ The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city. They beat me, they bruised me; they took away my cloak, those watchmen of the walls!

These ministers of God are rebuking, correcting, and instructing her [2 Timothy 3:16]. God disciplines those He loves [Heb.4:12; Isaiah 42:3]. DOES YOUR MINISTER SPEAK "FLOWERY WORDS" OR "WORDS OF POWER"?

⁸ O daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you - if you find my lover, what will you tell him? Tell him I am faint with love.

She hasn't totally learnt from the guidance and rebuke of the ministers of the Gospel for she charges the young in Christ (daughter of Jerusalem) what to tell Him. Her heart though is beginning to turn more towards Him. She confesses that she is lovesick. She confesses that her heart is broken and torn asunder without Him [Prov.13:12]. She is asking the daughters of Jerusalem to intercede for her. Ah, the "prayer of a righteous man availeth much".

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

Daughters of Jerusalem ⁹ How is your beloved better than others, most beautiful of women? How is your beloved better than others, that you charge us so?

These "babes in Christ" love Jesus. Yet they want to hear more about Christ from someone who has known Him intimately. They want to hear from a mature believer. This is the most beautiful lead in question for EVANGELISM. We should all be able to answer this question when asked or given the chance. How is Christ better than others? Why do you love Jesus? What does Jesus mean to you? Can you answer those questions? HOMEWORK: TAKE SOME TIME TO ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS.

Beloved ¹⁰ My lover is radiant and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand.

She begins to tell of her love for her Husband. Her heart opens up and she spills all that is in her heart. The words are vibrant & real yet cannot totally express all that He is to her [Psalm 45:1,2]. She starts from His general appearance and then works down His body (a full length picture of Him). Then finally His mouth (v.16) [see Christ as the glorified Judge in Rev.1:12-16]. He is magnificent and incomparable and unfathomable.

"Radiant" speaks of "white", "dazzling", "bright", "shimmering". Imagine the transfiguration. God on the mountain just like He was with Moses the first time. In all His Holiness and purity. "Ruddy" is talking of a fresh, healthy, colorful complexion. He is healthy and manly.
"Outstanding" speaks of being set apart from others [Isaiah 11:10; Phil.2:9; 1 Samuel 16:12]. Here we see Christ in His divinity as "radiant" like on the Mount of Transfiguration. Here we also see Christ in His humanity as "ruddy" which is manly [Hebrews 1:3; Hebrews 7:26].

LESSON #15 BIBLE STUDY

¹¹ His head is purest gold; his hair is wavy and black as a raven.

Now starting from the head down, we see "His head is purest gold". Imagine a wonderfully sculptured head shining in the "purest" (no impurities) of gold (divinity). "His hair is wavy" talks of the locks (area around the temples) flowing in clusters. The blackness showing youth, vigor, vitality. "Black as a raven" is added to show the glimmering, shiny, jet black color of His hair. Although He is the "ancient of days", He is also youthful and healthy – never changing but always the same [Isa.9:6; Eph.1:22; Col.2:10; Col.1:18, Eccl.11:10; Heb.13:8]. Remember that He had no place to lay His head.

¹² His eyes are like doves by the water streams, washed in milk, mounted like jewels.

You can imagine His eye's pupil surrounded by the clear, milky white of the eye. "Mounted like jewels" show how they are placed like a diamond set in a ring. His eyes like doves show Christ's tender, loving, graceful, sympathetic, and consoling nature [Matthew 11:29; 2 Cor.10:1; 2 Tim.2:19; 2 Chron.16:9; John 21:17].

¹³ His cheeks are like beds of spice yielding perfume.

The cheeks that had His beard plucked out from. The cheeks that were slapped, beaten, punched, and struck. The cheeks that tears rolled down as He wept over Jerusalem [Isaiah 50:6]. Here we see the fragrance of Christ in his humiliation and suffering, agonizing pain and death – how sweet, delightful, and yielding. If this be only the cheeks, imagine the beauty of His whole face as we seek Him with all our heart

His lips are like lilies dripping with myrrh.

[Eph.5:25; Eph.5:2].

His lips are red representing His life and vitality of life. His lips spoke words of comfort, hope, endearment, encouragement, conviction, creative power, life-giving teaching, rebuke, kindness, love, life, miracles, etc. His words minister to us at the core of our being [Psalm 45:2; Isaiah 50:4; Psalm 19:10-11; John 7:46; Col.3:16]. "Dripping" signifies a "flowing" or "abundance" of myrrh – the beauty of Christ's words. "No man ever spoke like this man!!" John 7:46

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

¹⁴ His arms are rods of gold set with chrysolite.

His strength is portrayed here. Imagine the strength or "rods" of the pure, divine power (gold) set (placed firmly) in an almost diamond-like stone. "His left arm is behind my head and his right arm embraces me." [Song of Songs 2:6; 8:3]. His arms are "everlasting arms" that reach from eternity past to eternity future – without end. His arms hold us so firm and tight and yet, gentle and caringly. We can lean on the everlasting arms of Christ. As Moses' arms fell and had to be held up or the battle turned against the Israelites – Christ needs no one to hold up His arms for He holds "all things" in His loving arms.

His body is like polished ivory decorated with sapphires.

He gleams brighter than the sun – for He made the sun. His body is youthful yet it was whipped, beaten, bloodied, and sun beaten. Oh, to be held tightly against His body knowing everything is alright.

¹⁵ His legs are pillars of marble set on bases of pure gold.

Again, strength is portrayed here.

Those same legs would be pushed up on the cross so that He would be able to catch a breath. Then, they would fall down being held up by a Roman nail. They were too tired to carry Jesus up to Calvary. They fell down on the paved, rocky roads of Jerusalem. They hurt as they were whipped on the back of his legs and calves. His legs hurt as they carried our Saviour throughout Galilee on His mission of love. Yet, there is strength here as we see them stand and "split" the mountain when He returns in power and glory at the Revelation.

His appearance is like Lebanon, choice as its cedars.

"His appearance" or everything about Him was excellent. Just as these cedars of Lebanon were – they stood out far and above the others.

He will stand tall, erect, and grand. We will stand before Him. Nothing in ourselves will be able to claim entry into His Kingdom. We will know that fact then more than ever. And we will look, as Thomas did, at His pierced hands and feet and know "it was because of what He did at the cross that we have access into heaven." Amazing grace!!!!

¹⁶ His mouth is sweetness itself;

Jesus' mouth and what comes forth of it is the "essence of sweetness itself". His mouth is the instrument of His affectionate kisses, of His all-wise voice, of His all beautiful looks, and nothing in all the world compares with the sweetness of Him.

he is altogether lovely.

In His person, His offices (Prophet, Priest, King), His countenance, His being, His essence, His glory, His love, His perfection, etc. - He is altogether lovely.
"who is the faithful witness (Prophet), the firstborn from the dead (Priest), and the ruler of the kings of the earth (King)" [Rev.1:5].

In all He does He is altogether lovely.
He is the essence – the Beginning and the End – the Alpha and the Omega.
It is HE – HIM – JESUS – GOD – LORD – THE ESSENCE.
He is the essence of altogether lovely.

"There is none like you, No one else can touch my heart like you do, I could search the whole world over and find, There is none like you."

This is my lover, this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

EVANGELISM.....

We study it, we teach it, we talk about it, we try it, we get discouraged with it, we dread it, we experience the joys of it. Yet, here is the sum of all evangelism: "This is my lover, this is my friend."

The intimacy only those who by grace can receive of a lover - now shared with others who will listen and open their heart, ears, and soul. The "friend" that encapsulates what a friend is all about - a friend who lays down His life for His brother. Don't you just want to tell people who ask you,

"How is your beloved better than others, most beautiful of women? How is your beloved better than others, that you charge us so?" The answer is, "This is my lover, this is my friend." He is altogether lovely. [Proverbs 17:17; 18:24; Matt.11:19; John 13:1; Psalm 34:2].

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

LESSON #16 BIBLE STUDY

Song of Solomon 6 Daughters of Jerusalem ¹ Where has your lover gone, most beautiful of women? Which way did your lover turn, that we may look for him with you?

From earlier asking how to help the bride find her husband to here, where they want to discover along with the bride where He is. Here we see the young in Christ and the Bride seeking and finding Christ. This is the church's duty and mission - then to take Him to a lost world. The delight of the Bride in her Husband and her desire to find Him has ignited the same interest in the young of the church. Next, may they draw sinners to Christ [Psalms 24:6; 1 Cor.1:2]. WHAT CAN BE DONE TO DRAW SINNERS TO CHRIST?

Beloved ² My lover has gone down to his garden,

Here we see the bride has an answer all ready. Again, the garden (4:12; 5:1) is the corporate church gathered out of the world. Jesus is in His church and is with His own [Isa.61:3; 27:3]. Christ is the bridegroom and the head of the church.

to browse in the gardens and to gather lilies.

"Gardens" could be different parts of the body of Christ and "to gather lilies" is to be with and draw closer His believers. Heaven is a place of gathered lilies.
The gathering of lilies is a beautiful and touching thing in Christ's heart. He gathers, caresses, smells their fragrance, and plants them for the display of His splendor [Phil.1:23; Matt.5:8].
JESUS GATHERS LILIES – HE TEACHES EVANGELISM BECAUSE HE'S THE EVANGELIST. HOW CAN WE LEARN EVANGELISM FROM JESUS?

³ I am my lover's and my lover is mine; he browses among the lilies.

In 2:16 she says, "My lover is mine, and I am his." Now she says, "I am my lover's and my lover is mine." She has gone from "He is mine" to "I am His". You can see the maturing happening in her as she has gone from her claim upon her to His claim upon her. Jesus is becoming her all consuming thought.

Finally, she wants to enjoy Christ among the church. She loves Him and she loves the church. A BORN AGAIN HEART BEGINS TO LOVE THE CHURCH MORE AND MORE.

LESSON #17 BIBLE STUDY

Lover

⁴ You are beautiful, my darling, as Tirzah,

Now we see the Lover opening up His heart fully to her again. She has returned to Him in repentance and she can enter His rest [Isaiah 30:15a; John 21:15-19]. "You are beautiful" should be meditated on again and again. Jesus says "you are beautiful". Is He a liar? Of course not. "You are beautiful." Tirzah was a Samaritan city meaning pleasantness, sweetness, delight, and agreeable – a lovely city with gardens, groves and abundant water.

lovely as Jerusalem,

Jerusalem is more striking than Tirzah. It means peace and was considered the place where God dwelt [Psalm 48; 122; Lam.2:15; Psalm 87:2,3]. We look forward to the New Jerusalem; untainted, full of Christ's peace, and eternal.

majestic as troops with banners.

We see here the Lord's army going forth, with the banner of love, with the Majestic King leading [Rev.1:6; 2 Cor.6:16-7:1; Eph.5:18; 1 Thes.5:12-15; Heb.13:7, 17; Phil.1:27-28; Eph.4:3; 6:10-11; 1 John 5:4; Tit.2:10; 1 Cor.10:31; Josh.5:14; Psa.110:3; Josh.2:11; Deut.11:25; 2 Cor.10:3-6]. Beauty, loveliness, majesty, dignity, power, and grace – the Lord's army under Christ. She is beautiful to Christ and to be feared by her adversaries. WHAT DOES BEING A PART OF THE LORD'S ARMY MEAN TO YOU?

⁵ Turn your eyes from me; they overwhelm me.

 When our Lover looks at us, just one look is overwhelming – deeply affecting and moving Him. Our eyes are so full of love for Jesus [Psalm 45:11].
 WHAT A JOY TO HAVE OUR EYES LIT UP WITH A LOVE FOR JESUS.

 Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from Gilead. [see 4:1b]
 ⁶ Your teeth are like a flock of sheep coming up from the washing. Each has its twin, not one of them is alone. [see 6:6 compare 4:2]
 ⁷ Your temples behind your veil are like the halves of a pomegranate. [see 6:7 compare 4:3b]

True love repeats itself again and again. You never tire of hearing words of love [Phil.3:1; Heb.13:8; 2 Samuel 23:5].

⁸ Sixty queens there may be, and eighty concubines, and virgins beyond number;

All put together and lined up in a row these would not compare to the beauty of His bride [1 Kings 11:3]. Also note the ascending order 60, 80, beyond number.

⁹ but my dove, my perfect one, is unique,

Christ's bride is His only heart's desire. She is the one – the only one for Him. No other can be compared to her. Jesus gives her His undivided love and attention. He also loves her uniqueness – her beautiful uniqueness. There is none like her.

the only daughter of her mother, the favorite of the one who bore her.

She was unique as the only one born by her mother. She was her mother's favorite – there was none other [Proverbs 4:3; Luke 12:32; Amos 3:2].

The maidens saw her and called her blessed; the queens and concubines praised her.

Christ's bride is pre-eminent among women – she is acknowledged without jealousy by all other women [Phil.2:15; 2 Thess.1:10; Psalm 45:9-17; Isaiah 60:15; 61:9; 62:7; Eph.1:3-4]. Jesus loves to hear others speak delightfully about His bride. He is so proud of her. Imagine the jealousy of Solomon's wives and concubines – yet here there is no jealousy. Even the angels aren't jealous of the Bride of Christ [Heb.12:2]. Also, the church is one company even though it has many different sized congregations [Eph.4:4-6].

LESSON #18 BIBLE STUDY

Daughters of Jerusalem

¹⁰ Who is this that appears like the dawn, fair as the moon, bright as the sun, majestic as the stars in procession?

Here we see the church. Notice the church gets brighter dawn, moon, sun, stars (many brighter than our sun).

We break forth like the moon shining in the dawn. Then we shine bright as the sun. Finally we are like the stars of the sky without number (each of us He knows and calls by name). We also see here the progressive sanctification of the believer although perfect in Christ's sight positionally (you are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you John 15:3; 1 Cor.1:30) we are being sanctified as a process (2 Thess.5:23,24) [Phil.1:6; Prov.4:18; Gal.4:19].

"appears like the dawn" [Isaiah 58:8; Psalm 30:5].
"fair as the moon" [Gen.1:16; John 8:12; Matt.5:14].

"bright as the sun" [Gen.1:16; Mal.4:2; 2 Cor.3:18; Judges 5:31; Daniel 12:3; Matt.13:43].
"majestic as the stars in procession" [Matt.16:18; 28:20].

Lover ¹¹ I went down to the grove of nut trees

The lover is speaking here in line with 5:1 & 6:2. Here we have the Husband explaining what had happened when He withdrew Himself from the bride for a season. The "grove of nut trees" is showing how in that season the church must go through many tribulations in entering the Kingdom of God. The bride had experienced this [Acts 14:22; Col.3:3; Psalm 125:2; John 17:15].

WHAT KINDS OF TRIAL HAVE YOU FACED? WHAT KINDS OF TRIALS DO YOU THINK YOU WILL FACE IN THE FUTURE?

to look at the new growth in the valley, to see if the vines had budded or the pomegranates were in bloom.

Now we see why Christ went down to the grove of nut trees. He was keeping watch and seeing how His garden (church) was doing. "New growth" is the gardener's heart seeing the budding vines and pomegranates in bloom. Jesus loves to see how His life is being expressed through His church. We can see the different stages of grace: the bud, the blossom and the fruit (His disciples bearing much fruit is a joy to the Gardener [John 15:8; Matt.17:20]. The "valley" is part of the "ups and downs", "the mountain top experiences" verses "coming off the mountain". In our walk we experience great spiritual pleasures and also dry, faith testing times. WHAT KINDS OF SPIRITUAL PLEASURES HAVE YOU FACED? ¹² Before I realized it, my desire set me among the royal chariots of my people.

From being shunned by His bride, to going down to the garden of nuts, to attending to things in the garden of nuts. Then His bride repented, her returning to Him and ravishing Him (6:5). So He returns and enjoys the beauty of His people (the royal chariots of my people – kings and priests).

> Daughters of Jerusalem ¹³ Come back, come back, O Shulammite; come back, come back, that we may gaze on you!

Beautiful restored fellowship is here. "Come back" is repeated 4 times – holy earnestness and offer of pardon and wonderful welcome are expressed through this repetition [John 14:23].

Lover Why would you gaze on the Shulammite as on the dance of Mahanaim?

In the second part of this verse we have the Bridegroom still rejoicing in His restoration and communion between them both. "Why would you gaze" is an overwhelming sight: she is grace displayed, redeemed by Christ, an enchanting bride, and an oak of righteousness – a planting of the Lord for the display of His splendor. "The dance of Mahanaim" could be likened to the heavenly angels in their multitude celebrating a new convert. Oh the joy!! As well they are rejoicing in their Creator and His beauty!! Here we have the bride dancing and rejoicing because of the Groom's grace!!! HAVE YOU EVER DANCED BEFORE THE LORD WITH ALL YOUR MIGHT?

LESSON #19 BIBLE STUDY

Song of Solomon 7

¹ How beautiful your sandaled feet, O prince's daughter! Your graceful legs are like jewels, the work of a craftsman's hands.

The action of the dance of the bride described above may be what is being described here.
In this area we see 10 different areas of the Bride's body.
Her sandaled feet (costly and beautiful in the orient)
– the feet of a dancer rejoicing and delighting!!
The beautiful shape and graceful appearance of her legs
- made by Christ's creative power and enjoyed by Christ. How beautiful as she dances for her Creator and Husband.
"Prince's daughter" is a new name & new title for her. We see the royal birth, character and station of those in Christ [Eph.1:4; 1 Pet.1:18-19; Rom.7:4; Rom.8:17; 2 Cor.6:18;
Psa.113:7-8; 1 Sam.2:8; 1 Pet.2:9-10; Rev.1:6].
"The work of a craftsman's hands" – the beauty of holiness – the work of the Holy Spirit indwelling the believer [John 16:14].
"Feet and sandals" show us our daily walk as God's workmanship [Eph.2:8-10; Titus 3:4-8].

² Your navel is a rounded goblet that never lacks blended wine. Your waist is a mound of wheat encircled by lilies.

We see a goblet filled with wine this is how He sees His bride here with whom she's entertaining.

The naval is the center of the body (infants and adults). Fear of the Lord is represented here as the naval provided the life for the child and we should never forget the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom [Prov.3:8; 1:7; 9:10; Ps.128:4; Gal.6:8; Rom.13:14; John 4:13-14].
"never lacks" should remind us not to lack in or forget the "fear of the Lord". The waist here shows fruitfulness and the delights of Christ.
"a mound of wheat encircled by lilies" brings in thoughts of beauty, fruitfulness, health and vitality [John 7:38]

³ Your breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

These breasts like two fawns show us beauty, fruitfulness, nourishment. A bride is to be commended for bearing, nourishing, and bringing up children [Psalm 128:3; Gen.29:34; Luke 1:24-25].

⁴ Your neck is like an ivory tower.

"The name of the Lord is a strong tower" [Proverbs 18:10]. She is His and He is hers. The ivory is white (washed from their sins – Isa.1:18); costly (the precious blood of Christ redeemed us – 1 Pet.1:19); and precious (how God regards us – 2 Pet.1:1; 1 Pet.1:7).

Your eyes are the pools of Heshbon by the gate of Bath Rabbim.

The "pools of Heshbon" would have reminded the Groom of the bride's eyes – large, clear, deep, attractive and desirable. The meeting of our eyes with Christ is "hypnotic" "captivating" [2 Cor.4:6; Eph.1:17-18; 1 Pet.2:9].

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon looking toward Damascus.

Some cultures consider a large nose as attractive.
Here we see courage and watchfulness.
Here we see the courageous, watchful church over the dangers of "Damascus" (represented here as the enemy of the church).
The church's enemies fighting against the church's doctrine, testimony, and even her life [Neh.4:9, 16-17].

LESSON #20 BIBLE STUDY

⁵ Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel. Your hair is like royal tapestry;

The head considered as "the crown" and "protection" can be found here [Psalm 27:6]. Mount Carmel is a high mountain near the sea [1 Kings 18; Amos 9:3]. It means "fruitful place" and exhibits boldness [Isaiah 35:2]. "Royal tapestry" for the hair reminds us of the royalty of purple. We might note that "jet black hair" shines with a purple luster.

the king is held captive by its tresses.

"Tresses" means "to run or to flow". The King is held captive by the way her hair cascades down like a waterfall [1 Cor.11:15; 1 Peter 3:3-4; Psalm 45:11; Zephaniah 3:17].

⁶ How beautiful you are and how pleasing, O love, with your delights!

Other than 8:13, this is the Lover's last statements. "Beautiful" and "pleasing" show us the outer and inner beauty of His bride the church [Isa.61:10; Romans 13:14]. Notice Jesus continually tells His bride of her beauty. Jesus never tires of telling us of His love for us and how beautiful we are. The Lord delights in you and we have many "delights" that appeal to our Lord [Isa.62:4-5; Zeph.3:17].

⁷ Your stature is like that of the palm,

The date palm tree here is tall and slender showing stateliness, gracefulness, and elegance. He takes a "full length" look at her. We also see the Christian's uprightness, balance, proportion, steady growth, and ultimate glorious victory [Gen.38;6; 2 Sam.13:1; 2 Sam.14:27; Lev.23:40; John 12:12-13; Rev.7:9; Phil.3:13-14; Eph.4:13; Psalm 92:12-14].

and your breasts like clusters of fruit.

By "your breasts" we see the love and affection displayed to her husband and how the husband is entertained and fulfilled [Pro.5:19]. The palm tree full of clusters of dates would be seen as flourishing just like the believer's spiritual life is ripening and blossoming [Gal.5:22; Psalm 92:15; Isa.61:3].

⁸ I said, ''I will climb the palm tree; I will take hold of its fruit.''

We can imagine the speed and eagerness of Christ climbing the tree. Embracing the tree to climb it (enjoying the moment to its fullest). Once taking hold of the fruit, He would be nourished, refreshed, and fulfilled [Pro.8:31; John 17:24; Isa.53:11; Heb.10:23].

May your breasts be like the clusters of the vine,

Now we see the breasts like "clusters of the vine". As the bride abides in Christ she becomes fruitful (clusters) [John 15:5; Psalm 80:8, 14; Isaiah 5:7]. There is also pruning and affliction involved [John 15:2; Acts 14:22].

the fragrance of your breath like apples, ⁹ and your mouth like the best wine.

"Clusters of the vine", "the fragrance your breath like apples", and "the best wine" show us the richness of the deep fellowship Christ enjoys with His bride [Psalm 149:4; Jeremiah 29:4].
The "breath" and "mouth" here show intense love from the bride to Him. We can see here our desires, longings, confessions, repentances, sighs, groans, thanksgivings, and praises.
WHAT ARE SOME OF YOUR DESIRES & LONGINGS IN CHRIST?

LESSON #21 BIBLE STUDY

Beloved

May the wine go straight to my lover, flowing gently over lips and teeth.

The bride breaks in here. She grabs the words and finishes what He's saying. She is who she is because of her Husband. Everything is for her Husband. Her love, desires, praises, serving, and all her being is for Him [Phil.1:21].

¹⁰ I belong to my lover, and his desire is for me.

"Desire" expresses "the full assurance of hope" (Heb.6:11), "faith" (Heb.10:22), and "of understanding" (Col.2:2).
Jesus is prophet (to teach us), priest (to die for us and intercede for us) and king (to govern us).
Jesus constantly desires His bride – He constantly is moved to her – He constantly thinks about her – He constantly cares for her.
Jesus bears with, sympathizes with, upholds, cares for, protects, guides, comforts, caresses, and loves her – His desire is for her.
HAS THIS BEEN YOUR EXPERIENCE? HOW COULD IT BE?

¹¹ Come, my lover, let us go to the countryside, let us spend the night in the villages.

In "let us" written twice we see her desire to get away and be alone together [Phil.3:10]. STOP NOW AND ASK GOD TO GIVE YOU A DESIRE TO BE ALONE WITH HIM.

 12 Let us go early to the vineyards to see if the vines have budded, if their blossoms have opened, and if the pomegranates are in bloom –

She desires to get up early to enjoy the beauty of His creation [Mark 1:35; Acts 15:36]. She mentions the vineyards, villages, and countryside – she desires to get away from distractions – to get "out of the world" and be with Him [John 17:16; Heb.13:13; Eph.4:22-23; Col.3:1-3; Gen.24:63; Matthew 6:6].

there I will give you my love.

She is uninhibited. Everything she has comes from Him and she wants to totally submit herself to Him. Nothing is held back for the One she desires. Our worship, fellowship, and service are all ways to give Him our love. Here we also see the missionary call – the countryside, the villages, the vineyards – she loves Him and wants to make Him known [Matt.28:19-20; Mark 16:15; Luke 14:21-23; Acts 1:8; John 15:5]. The budding (communion), blossoms (spiritual growth), and blooms (blessed service) all give a special meaning here.

¹³ The mandrakes send out their fragrance, and at our door is every delicacy, both new and old, that I have stored up for you, my lover.

Mandrakes or love apples are a potent smelling plant with whitish green flowers and yellow apples the size of nutmegs. They are something like an aphrodisiac to stir up sexual desire and passion and overcome problems of barrenness of the womb. Here they are mentioned so as to show the bride's longing to bring joy and pleasure to her Bridegroom. We enjoy Christ but want Christ to enjoy us. The fruits (Romans 5:3-5; Col.3:5-4:6; 2 Peter 1:5-11; Rom.7:4; Psa.113:9; Gal.4:19) are fragrant as well as delicacies. They preserve the old and bring forth the new (the past, present and future graces) [John 1:16; Eph.1:7; John 12:3]. She has stored and saved everything up for her Lover. What a joy and delight she is to Him. MEDITATE ON THE FACT THAT YOU ARE A JOY AND DELIGHT TO JESUS.

LESSON #22 BIBLE STUDY

Song of Solomon 8

¹ If only you were to me like a brother, who was nursed at my mother's breasts!

"like a brother" shows kinship, closeness, and purity. There is such a strong bond between next of kin – those nursed at their mother's breasts. She wants deeper intimacy with Jesus and nothing else will do [Psa.116:12; Romans 12:1-2]. What a wonderful thing to be brother with Christ [Heb.2:14; Pro.18:24]. WHAT DOES BEING CHRIST'S FRIEND AND BROTHER MEAN TO YOU?

Then, if I found you outside, I would kiss you, and no one would despise me.

In eastern cultures, brothers and sister would kiss each other in public without causing offense while a husband and wife would not do so. What a beautiful thing it would be to be able to kiss Christ whenever and wherever we wanted to without approach or persecution. TAKE A MOMENT AND KISS CHRIST – BE INTIMATE WITH HIM.

² I would lead you and bring you to my mother's house - she who has taught me.

If she was able to treat Christ like her brother she would be free to follow Him down paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Mother's house (3:4) is the church and the believer's family. "she who taught me" shows the believer needing teaching, counsel, and guidance knowing it is Christ who can best give it [Luke 10:39; Col.2:3; John 15:15; 2 Pet.3:18].

I would give you spiced wine to drink, the nectar of my pomegranates.

The desire of hers is still Christ – greater fellowship and intimacy. The nectar of my pomegranates is shown here as the richest and most refreshing drink she could offer. WHAT'S THE RICHEST AND MOST REFRESHING DRINK YOU CAN OFFER JESUS?

Verse 2:6 and 8:3 are exactly the same. In verses 3 & 4 now she addresses the daughters of Jerusalem (the young in Christ). She had just wanted to give royal pleasures to Christ but the real joy is Christ Himself for "the reality is found in Christ". She wants to experience all Christ is "now" while waiting for the completeness of Him in "heaven" [Ps.63:8; Deut.33:27]. HOW CAN YOU EXPERIENCE ALL CHRIST IS "NOW"?

⁴ Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

A new charge is given than those of 2:7 and 3:5. She is in Christ's arms and enjoying perfect pleasure and doesn't want anything to disturb her. The "DO NOT DISTURB" sign is up. The PRAYER CLOSET time is being protected. He is her "all in all" and she is keeping her "date" with the King – private table and private room. HOW IS YOUR PRAYER CLOSET? HOW COULD IT BE BETTER? DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM, I CHARGE YOU......

Daughters of Jerusalem ⁵ Who is this coming up from the desert leaning on her lover?

The main word here is "leaning". This shows trust – undeniable trust [Proverbs 3:5,6]. This is a wonderful description of a sinner being saved (Christ the sinner's help) and a redeemed believer (Christ the believer's glorification) going safely to glory [Psalm 113:7-8].

When a person is focused on Christ the past wilderness dissipates and the road to heaven becomes less laborious [Acts 4:12; 1 Cor.1:30]. Everything starts, progresses, and finishes with Christ [Philippians 4:13]. HOW IS CHRIST YOUR BEGINNING AND YOUR END?

LESSON #23 BIBLE STUDY

Beloved Under the apple tree I roused you;

Now the bride is reminding the young in Christ of those earlier times of shared love and devotion she had with Him - times of shared intimacy. "under the apple tree" is to be near Him - trusting in Him, covered by Him, and refreshed by Him. Note also that SHE roused Him. She stirred His heart and moved Him. We stir Christ's heart. We can lean on our wonderful Savior and always safe, secure, and refreshed.

there your mother conceived you, there she who was in labor gave you birth.

Here we see Christ with the "travail of His soul" conceiving and giving birth to the church. Here we see Christ weeping and praying for His church in the Garden - knowing the "joy set before Him" would be the birth of the church - His bride.

⁶ Place me like a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm;

The ancient custom was to wear signet rings, stones, metal seals or cords on hands, wrists or pendants around the neck and hanging over the heart. The beloved person's picture might be engraved showing they were loved, owned and possessed by that person. Christ's bride is "not ashamed of Him". She is proud to wear Him on her heart. She longs to have the fact of being "sealed for the day of redemption" deepened in her heart and her day by day experience [Rev.3:12; Ex.28:11-12; Isa.49:14-16; Haggai 2:23; Eph.1:13-14; Eph.4:30].

for love is as strong as death,

Death is the world's greatest preacher for, unless you are Raptured, it will be faced by all of us. Yet the power of death is surpassed by the love of Christ - for it was the power of Christ's love that took Him to the cross to conquer death. Death had power over us all. A power to fear and dread. Now Christ's life has the ultimate power – the power of love, trust, and permanence [1 Cor.15:54; Isa.25:8; 1 Cor.15:55; Hos.13:14; Matt.1:21; Psa.16:11; Eph.5:25].

its jealousy unvielding as the grave.

Christ's divine jealousy is intense. He will not share His worship with another nor give His glory to another for He is the eternal, living, and only God. Christ's love for the church is a possessive love. He longs to hold her and never let her go. In a holy sense, jealousy is the highest degree of love. Because of Christ's holy, perfect love He desires to hold on to the church as His forever. Nothing can separate us from the love of God. "Jealous" can also be interpreted as "zeal" [Ex.20:5; Rev.3:15; 2 Cor.11:2; John 10:17-18; Psa.69:9; John 2:17].

"unyielding as the grave" shows that Christ will not "give up" His church for anyone or anything. He takes complete possession of His bride and she is totally taken up with HIM.

It burns like blazing fire, like a mighty flame.

Christ's love for His bride is a burning, blazing fire that will never be extinguished. The flames reach to the heavens, encompass the universe, and fill heaven itself. As we "fan into flames" the gifts God has given us – Christ continually "fans into flames" the gift His Father gave Him and us as the gift He gave the Father [Rom.8:35, 38-39]. In the book of Daniel the fire could not consume the love that God had for His saints. Now the love of God is an eternal fire that will never go out – the love of God. It burns in Christ's heart for His church – burning eternally.

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

⁷ Many waters cannot quench love; rivers cannot wash it away.

Christ's love does not change – His love is cannot be quenched nor can rivers wash it away [1 Cor.13:4, 7, 8; Jeremiah 31:3; John 10:27-30]. No matter how difficult things got for Christ (on His way to the cross and on the cross) He never stopped loving even those who persecuted Him. "many waters cannot quench love" – God's love.

If one were to give all the wealth of his house for love, it would be utterly scorned.

Christ's love is unfathomable and priceless [Phil.3:7-11; Psa.63:3]. We always feel "pulled" as Christians in the sense that we are totally satisfied in Christ and yet we are dissatisfied in wanting more of Him. This tension is so prevalent throughout our walk and will finally end when we get home to heaven.

> Lover and Beloved ⁸ We have a young sister, and her breasts are not yet grown.

This reference may be to the Gentiles or the "elect of God" not yet called by grace through faith [John 10:16] or those who are newly saved but needing to grow in Christ. "her breasts are not yet grown" shows the absence of love and affection to Christ either because they are not saved or still young in the faith. We see sympathy, affection, and compassion here.

What shall we do for our sister for the day she is spoken for?

We see here the great concern Christ and His bride have for those spoken of in the previous part of the verse. It is the invitation of the lost to a wedding and the need of the young in Christ to be disciple [John 6:37; Luke 15:10; 2 Cor.6:2; Heb.4:7; Matt.22:1-4] ⁹ If she is a wall, we will build towers of silver on her. If she is a door, we will enclose her with panels of cedar.

The Lover and Beloved are answering their previous question, "What shall we do for our sister for the day she is spoken for?" The sinner is a plain, ordinary wall or a plain, ordinary door but when grace comes to the lost soul or babe in Christ it begins and continues a mighty work of change in the individual. The plain wall gets ornamented with silver – the graces of God. The plain door has panels of cedar put on – robes of righteousness. We can see salvation and holiness here [Psa.118:23; Eph.2:21-22; Psa.84:11; 2 Cor.5:17; 1 John 3:2].

LESSON #24 BIBLE STUDY

Beloved

¹⁰ I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers.

The bride remembers herself when she was once a plain wall and no breasts. Now because of the Grace of God she is "a wall" and her breasts "are like towers."

Thus I have become in his eyes like one bringing contentment.

"Thus" shows that it is because of Him. She acknowledges that it has come from Him. All she has and all she is comes from Him. We need to acknowledge continually the grace of God in salvation, in our spiritual growth, and in our daily walk and circumstances of life [Deut.33:23; 1 Cor.15:10].

¹¹ Solomon had a vineyard in Baal Hamon; he let out his vineyard to tenants. Each was to bring for its fruit a thousand shekels of silver. ¹² But my own vineyard is mine to give; the thousand shekels are for you, O Solomon, and two hundred are for those who tend its fruit.

Solomon has a vineyard which he rents to tenants. The tenants are to bring him a thousand shekels of silver a year. After that they can keep the fruit of the vineyard for themselves. But in reality she is a vineyard (garden, building, and many other names for the church). She wants all of it to be given to Solomon – no obligation or restraint – willingly and freely. The church is God's vineyard – we all have a responsibility to keep the vineyard – and to give to those "who tend its fruit". The workers (watchmen, overseers, stewards, builders, husbandmen, shepherds, pastors, etc.) are worth their hire [Isa.5:1-7; 27:2-3; Matt.21:33-46; Phil.2:3-4; 1 John 4:20-21; Matt.13:23; Mark 10:28-31; John 15:8,16; Proverbs 3:9-10; 2 Cor.9:6].

Lover ¹³ You who dwell in the gardens with friends in attendance, let me hear your voice!

The lover finishes by wanting to hear the Bride's voice. He also wants to hear the church's voice tell of His love, beauty, and excellence to the "friends". Right now we are still not totally together with Christ. We are together spiritually (1 Cor.6:17) but will not be totally together until we get to heaven [Col.3:1; 3:2-4; 2 Cor.5:8; John 14:1-3]. There is still lots of Kingdom work to do in the Garden. Jesus longs to hear our voice. Our prayers to His throne. Our soft "I love You". Our cries for help. Our intercessions for others. Our longings and desires to deeper intimacy. Jesus is waiting to come back for His church at the Rapture (1 Thess.4:16,17). He is preparing to meet us in the air. He has been waiting for the moment for all eternity past. He loves His bride – He died for His bride – He would die for her again (though that will not be necessary as His sacrifice was perfect). He is waiting to see a church without spot or blemish. And He wants to hear our voice!!!! [Heb.13:15; 1 Thess.5:17].

HOMEWORK: SEE THE SPURGEON DEVOTIONS

Beloved

¹⁴ Come away, my lover, and be like a gazelle or like a young stag on the spice-laden mountains.

She calls Him "my lover" unashamedly – with passion, pleasure, and pride. He is everything to her – her "all and in all" [Col.3:11].
"Come away" is a sense of urgency, flight, or quickness to be with one another [Phil.1:23; 1 Thess.4:17].
The time they have had here has been wonderful but they long for even more eternity together in wedded bliss.
The "spice-laden mountains" are heaven (Psalm 45:8) and she desires for Him to return for her a nd together they can be caught up to be together forever [Matt.24:29-31; Rev.22:7; Acts.1:11; Rev.1:7; Titus 2:13].
Christ is returning. It is His promise – our Blessed Hope – our yearning – our desire.
He will come in His Father's glory.

The Song of Songs is a masterpiece. It is LOVE – the pulse of the Bible.
The Song of Songs is God's love for His Church, His Bride.
It is God's yearning and desire to be with us uninhibited.
It is all about how we respond to that love. That wonderful love that took Jesus Christ to the cross at Calvary to save His bride – His beloved.
When someone loves us there are many responses we can make. We can reject, ignore, or receive the love. If we cannot respond to a love as great as this – we will never be able to respond to love at all.
God's love is an eternal love that we can never be separated from. Jesus said, "Surely I am coming quickly".
How else can we respond but with, "Amen. Even so come, Lord Jesus!!!!!!"

Some C.H. Spurgeon Devotions on the Song of Songs

"Let Him kiss me with the kisses of His mouth." --Song of Solomon 1:2

For several days we have been dwelling upon the Savior's passion, and for some little time to come we shall linger there. In beginning a new month, let us seek the same desires after our Lord as those which glowed in the heart of the elect spouse. See how she leaps at once to Him; there are no prefatory words; she does not even mention His name; she is in the heart of her theme at once, for she speaks of Him who was the only Him in the world to her. How bold is her love! it was much condescension which permitted the weeping penitent to anoint His feet with spikenard--it was rich love which allowed the gentle Mary to sit at His feet and learn of Him--but here, love, strong, fervent love, aspires to higher tokens of regard, and closer signs of fellowship. Esther trembled in the presence of Ahasuerus, but the spouse in joyful liberty of perfect love knows no fear. If we have received the same free spirit, we also may ask the like. By kisses we suppose to be intended those varied manifestations of affection by which the believer is made to enjoy the love of Jesus. The kiss of reconciliation we enjoyed at our conversion, and it was sweet as honey dropping from the comb. The kiss of acceptance is still warm on our brow, as we know that He hath accepted our persons and our works through rich grace. The kiss of daily, present communion, is that which we pant after to be repeated day after day, till it is changed into the kiss of reception, which removes the soul from earth, and the kiss of consummation which fills it with the joy of heaven. Faith is our walk, but fellowship sensibly felt is our rest. Faith is the road, but communion with Jesus is the well from which the pilgrim drinks. O lover of our souls, be not strange to us; let the lips of Thy blessing meet the lips of our asking; let the lips of Thy fulness touch the lips of our need, and straightway the kiss will be effected.

"Thy love is better than wine." --Song of Solomon 1:2

Nothing gives the believer so much joy as fellowship with Christ. He has enjoyment as others have in the common mercies of life, he can be glad both in God's gifts and God's works; but in all these separately, yea, and in all of them added together, he doth not find such substantial delight as in the matchless person of his Lord Jesus. He has wine which no vineyard on earth ever yielded; he has bread which all the corn-fields of Egypt could never bring forth. Where can such sweetness be found as we have tasted in communion with our Beloved? In our esteem, the joys of earth are little better than husks for swine compared with Jesus, the heavenly manna. We would rather have one mouthful of Christ's love, and a sip of his fellowship, than a whole world full of carnal delights. What is the chaff to the wheat? What is the sparkling paste to the true diamond? What is a dream to the glorious reality? What is time's mirth, in its best trim, compared to our Lord Jesus in His most despised estate? If you know anything of the inner life, you will confess that our highest, purest, and most enduring joys must be the fruit of the tree of life which is in the midst of the Paradise of God. No spring yields such sweet water as that well of God which was digged with the soldier's spear. All earthly bliss is of the earth earthy, but the comforts of Christ's presence are like Himself, heavenly. We can review our communion with Jesus, and find no regrets of emptiness therein; there are no dregs in this wine, no dead flies in this ointment. The joy of the Lord is solid and enduring. Vanity hath not looked upon it, but discretion and prudence testify that it abideth the test of years, and is in time and in eternity worthy to be called "the only true delight." For nourishment, consolation, exhilaration, and refreshment, no wine can rival the love of Jesus. Let us drink to the full this evening.

"We will remember Thy love more than wine." -- Song of Solomon 1:4

Jesus will not let His people forget His love. If all the love they have enjoyed should be forgotten, He will visit them with fresh love. "Do you forget my cross?" says He, "I will cause you to remember it; for at My table I will manifest Myself anew to you. Do you forget what I did for you in the council-chamber of eternity? I will remind you of it, for you shall need a counsellor, and shall find Me ready at your call." Mothers do not let their children forget them. If the boy has gone to Australia, and does not write home, his mother writes--"Has John forgotten his mother?" Then there comes back a sweet epistle, which proves that the gentle reminder was not in vain. So is it with Jesus, He says to us, "Remember Me," and our response is, "We will remember Thy love." We will remember Thy love and its matchless history. It is ancient as the glory which Thou hadst with the Father before the world was. We remember, O Jesus, Thine eternal love when Thou didst become our Surety, and espouse us as Thy betrothed. We remember the love which suggested the sacrifice of Thyself, the love which, until the fulness of time, mused over that sacrifice, and long for the hour whereof in the volume of the book it was written of Thee, "Lo, I come." We remember Thy love, O Jesus as it was manifest to us in Thy holy life, from the manger of Bethlehem to the garden of Gethsemane. We track Thee from the cradle to the grave--for every word and deed of Thine was love--and we rejoice in Thy love, which death did not exhaust: Thy love which shone resplendent in Thy resurrection. We remember that burning fire of love which will never let Thee hold Thy peace until Thy chosen ones be all safely housed, until Zion be glorified, and Jerusalem settled on her everlasting foundations of light and love in heaven.

"The upright love Thee" --Song of Solomon 1:4

Believers love Jesus with a deeper affection then they dare to give to any other being. They would sooner lose father and mother then part with Christ. They hold all earthly comforts with a loose hand, but they carry Him fast locked in their bosoms. They voluntarily deny themselves for His sake, but they are not to be driven to deny Him. It is scant love which the fire of persecution can dry up; the true believer's love is a deeper stream than this. Men have laboured to divide the faithful from their Master, but their attempts have been fruitless in every age. Neither crowns of honour, now frowns of anger, have untied this more than Gordian knot. This is no every-day attachment which the world's power may at length dissolve. Neither man nor devil have found a key which opens this lock. Never has the craft of Satan been more at fault than when he has exercised it in seeking to rend in sunder this union of two divinely welded hearts. It is written, and nothing can blot out the sentence, "The upright love Thee." The intensity of the love of the upright, however, is not so much to be judged by what it appears as by what the upright long for. It is our daily lament that we cannot love enough. Would that our hearts were capable of holding more, and reaching further. Like Samuel Rutherford, we sigh and cry, "Oh, for as much love as would go round about the earth, and over heaven--yea, the heaven of heavens, and ten thousand worlds--that I might let all out upon fair, fair, only fair Christ." Alas! our longest reach is but a span of love, and our affection is but as a drop of a bucket compared with His deserts. Measure our love by our intentions, and it is high indeed; 'tis thus, we trust, our Lord doth judge of it. Oh, that we could give all the love in all hearts in one great mass, a gathering together of all loves to Him who is altogether lovely!

"We will be glad and rejoice in Thee." -- Song of Solomon 1:4

We will be glad and rejoice in Thee. We will not open the gates of the year to the dolorous notes of the sackbut, but to the sweet strains of the harp of joy, and the high sounding cymbals of gladness. "O come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us make a joyful noise unto the rock of our salvation." We, the called and faithful and chosen, we will drive away our griefs, and set up our banners of confidence in the name of God. Let others lament over their troubles, we who have the sweetening tree to cast into Marah's bitter pool, with joy will magnify the Lord. Eternal Spirit, our effectual Comforter, we who are the temples in which Thou dwellest, will never cease from adoring and blessing the name of Jesus. We WILL, we are resolved about it, Jesus must have the crown of our heart's delight; we will not dishonour our Bridegroom by mourning in His presence. We are ordained to be the minstrels of the skies, let us rehearse our everlasting anthem before we sing it in the halls of the New Jerusalem. We will BE GLAD AND REJOICE: two words with one sense, double joy, blessedness upon blessedness. Need there be any limit to our rejoicing in the Lord even now? Do not men of grace find their Lord to be camphire and spikenard, calamus and cinnamon even now, and what better fragrance have they in heaven itself? We will be glad and rejoice IN THEE. That last word is the meat in the dish, the kernel of the nut, the soul of the text. What heavens are laid up in Jesus! What rivers of infinite bliss have their source, ay, and every drop of their fulness in Him! Since, O sweet Lord Jesus, Thou art the present portion of Thy people, favour us this year with such a sense of Thy preciousness, that from its first to its last day we may be glad and rejoice in Thee. Let January open with joy in the Lord, and December close with gladness in Jesus.

"Thou whom my soul loveth." --Song of Solomon 1:7

It is well to be able, without any "if" or "but," to say of the Lord Jesus--"Thou whom my soul loveth." Many can only say of Jesus that they hope they love Him; they trust they love Him; but only a poor and shallow experience will be content to stay here. No one ought to give any rest to his spirit till he feels quite sure about a matter of such vital importance. We ought not to be satisfied with a superficial hope that Jesus loves us, and with a bare trust that we love Him. The old saints did not generally speak with "buts," and "ifs," and "hopes," and "trusts," but they spoke positively and plainly. "I know whom I have believed," saith Paul. "I know that my Redeemer liveth," saith Job. Get positive knowledge of your love of Jesus, and be not satisfied till you can speak of your interest in Him as a reality, which you have made sure by having received the witness of the Holy Spirit, and His seal upon your soul by faith.

True love to Christ is in every case the Holy Spirit's work, and must be wrought in the heart by Him. He is the efficient cause of it; but the logical reason why we love Jesus lies in Himself. Why do we love Jesus? Because He first loved us. Why do we love Jesus? Because He "gave Himself for us." We have life through His death; we have peace through His blood. Though He was rich, yet for our sakes He became poor. Why do we love Jesus? Because of the excellency of His person. We are filled with a sense of His beauty! an admiration of His charms! a consciousness of His infinite perfection! His greatness, goodness, and loveliness, in one resplendent ray, combine to enchant the soul till it is so ravished that it exclaims, "Yea, He is altogether lovely." Blessed love this--a love which binds the heart with chains more soft than silk, and yet more firm than adamant!

"Tell me . . . where Thou feedest, where Thou makest Thy flock to rest at noon." -- Song of Solomon 1:7

These words express the desire of the believer after Christ, and his longing for present communion with Him. Where doest Thou feed Thy flock? In Thy house? I will go, if I may find Thee there. In private prayer? Then I will pray without ceasing. In the Word? Then I will read it diligently. In Thine ordinances? Then I will walk in them with all my heart. Tell me where Thou feedest, for wherever Thou standest as the Shepherd, there will I lie down as a sheep; for none but Thyself can supply my need. I cannot be satisfied to be apart from Thee. My soul hungers and thirsts for the refreshment of Thy presence. "Where dost Thou make Thy flock to rest at noon?" for whether at dawn or at noon, my only rest must be where Thou art and Thy beloved flock. My soul's rest must be a grace-given rest, and can only be found in Thee. Where is the shadow of that rock? Why should I not repose beneath it? "Why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?" Thou hast companions--why should I not be one? Satan tells me I am unworthy; but I always was unworthy, and yet Thou hast long loved me; and therefore my unworthiness cannot be a bar to my having fellowship with Thee now. It is true I am weak in faith, and prone to fall, but my very feebleness is the reason why I should always be where Thou feedest Thy flock, that I may be strengthened, and preserved in safety beside the still waters. Why should I turn aside? There is no reason why I should, but there are a thousand reasons why I should not, for Jesus beckons me to come. If He withdrew Himself a little, it is but to make me prize His presence more. Now that I am grieved and distressed at being away from Him, He will lead me yet again to that sheltered nook where the lambs of His fold are sheltered from the burning sun

"A bundle of myrrh is my well-beloved unto me." -- Song of Solomon 1:13

Myrrh may well be chosen as the type of Jesus on account of its preciousness, its perfume, its pleasantness, its healing, preserving, disinfecting qualities, and its connection with sacrifice. But why is He compared to "a bundle of myrrh"? First, for plenty. He is not a drop of it, He is a casket full. He is not a sprig or flower of it, but a whole bundle. There is enough in Christ for all my necessities; let me not be slow to avail myself of Him. Our well-beloved is compared to a "bundle" again, for variety: for there is in Christ not only the one thing needful, but in "Him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily," everything needful is in Him. Take Jesus in His different characters, and you will see a marvellous variety--Prophet, Priest, King, Husband, Friend, Shepherd. Consider Him in His life, death, resurrection, ascension, second advent; view Him in His virtue, gentleness, courage, self-denial, love, faithfulness, truth, righteousness-- everywhere He is a bundle of preciousness. He is a "bundle of myrrh" for preservation--not loose myrrh tied up, myrrh to be stored in a casket. We must value Him as our best treasure; we must prize His words and His ordinances; and we must keep our thoughts of Him and knowledge of Him as under lock and key, lest the devil should steal anything from us. Moreover, Jesus is a "bundle of myrrh" for speciality. The emblem suggests the idea of distinguishing, discriminating grace. From before the foundation of the world, He was set apart for His people; and He gives forth His perfume only to those who understand how to enter into communion with Him, to have close dealings with Him. Oh! blessed people whom the Lord hath admitted into His secrets, and for whom He sets Himself apart. Oh! choice and happy who are thus made to say, "A bu ndle of myrrh is my well-beloved unto me."

"Behold, Thou art fair, my Beloved." -- Song of Solomon 1:16

From every point our Well-beloved is most fair. Our various experiences are meant by our heavenly Father to furnish fresh standpoints from which we may view the loveliness of Jesus; how amiable are our trials when they carry us aloft where we may gain clearer views of Jesus than ordinary life could afford us! We have seen Him from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, and He has shone upon us as the sun in his strength; but we have seen Him also "from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards," and He has lost none of His loveliness. From the languishing of a sick bed, from the borders of the grave, have we turned our eyes to our soul's spouse, and He has never been otherwise than "all fair." Many of His saints have looked upon Him from the gloom of dungeons, and from the red flames of the stake, yet have they never uttered an ill word of Him, but have died extolling His surpassing charms. Oh, noble and pleasant employment to be for ever gazing at our sweet Lord Jesus! Is it not unspeakably delightful to view the Saviour in all His offices, and to perceive Him matchless in each?--to shift the kaleidoscope, as it were, and to find fresh combinations of peerless graces? In the manger and in eternity, on the cross and on His throne, in the garden and in His kingdom, among thieves or in the midst of cherubim. He is everywhere "altogether lovely." Examine carefully every little act of His life, and every trait of His character, and He is as lovely in the minute as in the majestic. Judge Him as you will, you cannot censure; weigh Him as you please, and He will not be found wanting. Eternity shall not discover the shadow of a spot in our Beloved, but rather, as ages revolve, His hidden glories shall shine forth with yet more inconceivable splendour, and His unutterable loveliness shall more and more ravish all celestial minds.

"I am the rose of Sharon." -- Song of Solomon 2:1

Whatever there may be of beauty in the material world, Jesus Christ possesses all that in the spiritual world in a tenfold degree. Amongst flowers the rose is deemed the sweetest, but Jesus is infinitely more beautiful in the garden of the soul than the rose can in the gardens of earth. He takes the first place as the fairest among ten thousand. He is the sun, and all others are the stars; the heavens and the day are dark in comparison with Him, for the King in His beauty transcends all. "I am the rose of Sharon." This was the best and rarest of roses. Jesus is not "the rose" alone, He is "the rose of Sharon," just as He calls His righteousness "gold," and then adds, "the gold of Ophir"--the best of the best. He is positively lovely, and superlatively the loveliest. There is variety in His charms. The rose is delightful to the eye, and its scent is pleasant and refreshing; so each of the senses of the soul, whether it be the taste or feeling, the hearing, the sight, or the spiritual smell, finds appropriate gratification in Jesus. Even the recollection of His love is sweet. Take the rose of Sharon, and pull it leaf from leaf, and lay by the leaves in the jar of memory, and you shall find each leaf fragrant long afterwards, filling the house with perfume. Christ satisfies the highest taste of the most educated spirit to the very full. The greatest amateur in perfumes is quite satisfied with the rose: and when the soul has arrived at her highest pitch of true taste, she shall still be content with Christ, nay, she shall be the better able to appreciate Him. Heaven itself possesses nothing which excels the rose of Sharon. What emblem can fully set forth His beauty? Human speech and earth-born things fail to tell of Him. Earth's choicest charms commingled, feebly picture His abounding preciousness. Blessed rose, bloom in my heart for ever!

"His fruit was sweet to my taste." -- Song of Solomon 2:3

Faith, in the Scripture, is spoken of under the emblem of all the senses. It is sight: "Look unto me and be ye saved." It is hearing: "Hear, and your soul shall live." Faith is smelling: "All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia"; "thy name is as ointment poured forth." Faith is spiritual touch. By this faith the woman came behind and touched the hem of Christ's garment, and by this we handle the things of the good word of life. Faith is equally the spirit's taste. "How sweet are Thy words to my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my lips." "Except a man eat my flesh," saith Christ, "and drink my blood, there is no life in him."

This "taste" is faith in one of its highest operations. One of the first performances of faith is hearing. We hear the voice of God, not with the outward ear alone, but with the inward ear; we hear it as God's Word, and we believe it to be so; that is the "hearing" of faith. Then our mind looketh upon the truth as it is presented to us; that is to say, we understand it, we perceive its meaning; that is the "seeing" of faith. Next we discover its preciousness; we begin to admire it, and find how fragrant it is; that is faith in its "smell." Then we appropriate the mercies which are prepared for us in Christ; that is faith in its "smell." Then we appropriate the mercies which are faith in its "taste." Any one of these acts of faith is saving. To hear Christ's voice as the sure voice of God in the soul will save us; but that which gives true enjoyment is the aspect of faith wherein Christ, by holy taste, is received into us, and made, by inward and spiritual apprehension of His sweetness and preciousness, to be the food of our souls. It is then we sit "under His shadow with great delight," and find His fruit sweet to our taste.

"My beloved." --Song of Solomon 2:8

This was a golden name which the ancient Church in her most joyous moments was wont to give to the Anointed of the Lord. When the time of the singing of birds was come, and the voice of the turtle was heard in her land, her love-note was sweeter than either, as she sang, "My beloved is mine and I am His: He feedeth among the lilies." Ever in her song of songs doth she call Him by that delightful name, "My beloved!" Even in the long winter, when idolatry had withered the garden of the Lord, her prophets found space to lay aside the burden of the Lord for a little season, and to say, as Esaias did, "Now will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching His vineyard." Though the saints had never seen His face, though as yet He was not made flesh, nor had dwelt among us, nor had man beheld His glory, yet He was the consolation of Israel, the hope and joy of all the chosen, the "beloved" of all those who were upright before the Most High. We, in the summer days of the Church, are also wont to speak of Christ as the best beloved of our soul, and to feel that He is very precious, the "chiefest among ten thousand, and the altogether lovely." So true is it that the Church loves Jesus, and claims Him as her beloved, that the apostle dares to defy the whole universe to separate her from the love of Christ, and declares that neither persecutions, distress, affliction, peril, or the sword have been able to do it; nay, he joyously boasts, "In all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us."

My sole possession is Thy love; In earth beneath, or heaven above, I have no other store; And though with fervent suit I pray, And importune Thee day by day, I ask Thee nothing more.

"Rise up my love, my fair one, and come away." -- Song of Solomon 2:10

Lo, I hear the voice of my Beloved! He speaks to me! Fair weather is smiling upon the face of the earth, and He would not have me spiritually asleep while nature is all around me awaking from her winter's rest. He bids me "Rise up," and well He may, for I have long enough been lying among the pots of worldliness. He is risen, I am risen in Him, why then should I cleave unto the dust? From lower loves, desires, pursuits, and aspirations, I would rise towards Him. He calls me by the sweet title of "My love," and counts me fair; this is a good argument for my rising. If He has thus exalted me, and thinks me thus comely, how can I linger in the tents of Kedar and find congenial associates among the sons of men? He bids me "Come away." Further and further from everything selfish, grovelling, worldly, sinful, He calls me; yea, from the outwardly religious world which knows Him not, and has no sympathy with the mystery of the higher life, He calls me. "Come away" has no harsh sound in it to my ear, for what is there to hold me in this wilderness of vanity and sin? O my Lord, would that I could come away, but I am taken among the thorns, and cannot escape from them as I would. I would, if it were possible, have neither eyes, nor ears, nor heart for sin. Thou callest me to Thyself by saying "Come away," and this is a melodious call indeed. To come to Thee is to come home from exile, to come to land out of the raging storm, to come to rest after long labour, to come to the goal of my desires and the summit of my wishes. But Lord, how can a stone rise, how can a lump of clay come away from the horrible pit? O raise me, draw me. Thy grace can do it. Send forth Thy Holy Spirit to kindle sacred flames of love in my heart, and I will continue to rise until I leave life and time behind me, and indeed come away.

"The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land." --Song of Solomon 2:12

Sweet is the season of spring: the long and dreary winter helps us to appreciate its genial warmth, and its promise of summer enhances its present delights. After periods of depression of spirit, it is delightful to behold again the light of the Sun of Righteousness; then our slumbering graces rise from their lethargy, like the crocus and the daffodil from their beds of earth; then is our heart made merry with delicious notes of gratitude, far more melodious than the warbling of birds--and the comforting assurance of peace, infinitely more delightful than the turtle's note, is heard within the soul. Now is the time for the soul to seek communion with her Beloved; now must she rise from her native sordidness, and come away from her old associations. If we do not hoist the sail when the breeze is favourable, we shall be blameworthy: times of refreshing ought not to pass over us unimproved. When Jesus Himself visits us in tenderness, and entreats us to arise, can we be so base as to refuse His request? He has Himself risen that He may draw us after Him: He now by His Holy Spirit has revived us, that we may, in newness of life, ascend into the heavenlies, and hold communion with Himself. Let our wintry state suffice us for coldness and indifference; when the Lord creates a spring within, let our sap flow with vigour, and our branch blossom with high resolve. O Lord, if it be not spring time in my chilly heart, I pray Thee make it so, for I am heartily weary of living at a distance from Thee. Oh! the long and dreary winter, when wilt Thou bring it to an end? Come, Holy Spirit, and renew my soul! quicken Thou me! restore me, and have mercy on me! This very night I would earnestly implore the Lord to take pity upon His servant, and send me a happy revival of spiritual life!

"Take us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vines." -- Song of Solomon 2:15

A little thorn may cause much suffering. A little cloud may hide the sun. Little foxes spoil the vines; and little sins do mischief to the tender heart. These little sins burrow in the soul, and make it so full of that which is hateful to Christ, that He will hold no comfortable fellowship and communion with us. A great sin cannot destroy a Christian, but a little sin can make him miserable. Jesus will not walk with His people unless they drive out every known sin. He says, "If ye keep My commandments, ye shall abide in My love, even as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love." Some Christians very seldom enjoy their Saviour's presence. How is this? Surely it must be an affliction for a tender child to be separated from his father. Art thou a child of God, and yet satisfied to go on without seeing thy Father's face? What! thou the spouse of Christ, and yet content without His company! Surely, thou hast fallen into a sad state, for the chaste spouse of Christ mourns like a dove without her mate, when he has left her. Ask, then, the question, what has driven Christ from thee? He hides His face behind the wall of thy sins. That wall may be built up of little pebbles, as easily as of great stones. The sea is made of drops; the rocks are made of grains; and the sea which divides thee from Christ may be filled with the drops of thy little sins; and the rock which has well nigh wrecked thy barque, may have been made by the daily working of the coral insects of thy little sins. If thou wouldst live with Christ, and walk with Christ, and see Christ, and have fellowship with Christ, take heed of "the little foxes that spoil the vines, for our vines have tender grapes." Jesus invites you to go with Him and take them. He will surely, like Samson, take the foxes at once and easily. Go with Him to the hunting.

"My Beloved is mine, and I am His: He feedeth among the lilies. Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my Beloved, and be Thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of Bether." --Song of Solomon 2:16, 17

Surely if there be a happy verse in the Bible it is this--"My Beloved is mine, and I am His." So peaceful, so full of assurance, so overrunning with happiness and contentment is it, that it might well have been written by the same hand which penned the twenty-third Psalm. Yet though the prospect is exceeding fair and lovely--earth cannot show its superior--it is not entirely a sunlit landscape. There is a cloud in the sky which casts a shadow over the scene. Listen, "Until the day break, and the shadows flee away."

There is a word, too, about the "mountains of Bether," or, "the mountains of division," and to our love, anything like division is bitterness. Beloved, this may be your present state of mind; you do not doubt your salvation; you know that Christ is yours, but you are not feasting with Him. You understand your vital interest in Him, so that you have no shadow of a doubt of your being His, and of His being yours, but still His left hand is not under your head, nor doth His right hand embrace you. A shade of sadness is cast over your heart, perhaps by affliction, certainly by the temporary absence of your Lord, so even while exclaiming, "I am His," you are forced to take to your knees, and to pray, "Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my Beloved."

"Where is He?" asks the soul. And the answer comes, "He feedeth among the lilies." If we would find Christ, we must get into communion with His people, we must come to the ordinances with His saints. Oh, for an evening glimpse of Him! Oh, to sup with Him to-night!

"I sought him, but I found him not." -- Song of Solomon 3:1

Tell me where you lost the company of Christ, and I will tell you the most likely place to find Him. Have you lost Christ in the closet by restraining prayer? Then it is there you must seek and find Him. Did you lose Christ by sin? You will find Christ in no other way but by the giving up of the sin, and seeking by the Holy Spirit to mortify the member in which the lust doth dwell. Did you lose Christ by neglecting the Scriptures? You must find Christ in the Scriptures. It is a true proverb, "Look for a thing where you dropped it, it is there." So look for Christ where you lost Him, for He has not gone away. But it is hard work to go back for Christ. Bunyan tells us, the pilgrim found the piece of the road back to the Arbour of Ease, where he lost his roll, the hardest he had ever travelled. Twenty miles onward is easier than to go one mile back for the lost evidence.

Take care, then, when you find your Master, to cling close to Him. But how is it you have lost Him? One would have thought you would never have parted with such a precious friend, whose presence is so sweet, whose words are so comforting, and whose company is so dear to you! How is it that you did not watch Him every moment for fear of losing sight of Him? Yet, since you have let Him go, what a mercy that you are seeking Him, even though you mournfully groan, "O that I knew where I might find Him!" Go on seeking, for it is dangerous to be without thy Lord. Without Christ you are like a sheep without its shepherd; like a tree without water at its roots; like a sere leaf in the tempest--not bound to the tree of life. With thine whole heart seek Him, and He will be found of thee: only give thyself thoroughly up to the search, and verily, thou shalt yet discover Him to thy joy and gladness.

"I found Him whom my soul loveth: I held Him, and would not let Him go." -- Song of Solomon 3:4

Does Christ receive us when we come to Him, notwithstanding all our past sinfulness? Does He never chide us for having tried all other refuges first? And is there none on earth like Him? Is He the best of all the good, the fairest of all the fair? Oh, then let us praise Him! Daughters of Jerusalem, extol Him with timbrel and harp! Down with your idols, up with the Lord Jesus. Now let the standards of pomp and pride be trampled under foot, but let the cross of Jesus, which the world frowns and scoffs at, be lifted on high. O for a throne of ivory for our King Solomon! let Him be set on high for ever, and let my soul sit at His footstool, and kiss His feet, and wash them with my tears. Oh, how precious is Christ! How can it be that I have thought so little of Him? How is it I can go abroad for joy or comfort when He is so full, so rich, so satisfying. Fellow believer, make a covenant with thine heart that thou wilt never depart from Him, and ask thy Lord to ratify it. Bid Him set thee as a signet upon His finger, and as a bracelet upon His arm. Ask Him to bind thee about Him, as the bride decketh herself with ornaments, and as the bridegroom putteth on his jewels. I would live in Christ's heart; in the clefts of that rock my soul would eternally abide. The sparrow hath made a house, and the swallow a nest for herself where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God; and so too would I make my nest, my home, in Thee, and never from Thee may the soul of Thy turtle dove go forth again, but may I nestle close to Thee, O Jesus, my true and only rest.

"When my precious Lord I find, All my ardent passions glow; Him with cords of love I bind, Hold and will not let Him go."

"Thou art all fair, my love." -- Song of Solomon 4:7

The Lord's admiration of His Church is very a wonderful, and His description of her beauty is very glowing. She is not merely fair, but "all fair." He views her in Himself, washed in His sin-atoning blood and clothed in His meritorious righteousness, and He considers her to be full of comeliness and beauty. No wonder that such is the case, since it is but His own perfect excellency that He admires; for the holiness, glory, and perfection of His Church are His own glorious garments on the back of His own well-beloved spouse. She is not simply pure, or well-proportioned; she is positively lovely and fair! She has actual merit! Her deformities of sin are removed; but more, she has through her Lord obtained a meritorious righteousness by which an actual beauty is conferred upon her. Believers have a positive righteousness given to them when they become "accepted in the beloved" (Eph. 1:6). Nor is the Church barely lovely, she is superlatively so. Her Lord styles her "Thou fairest among women." She has a real worth and excellence which cannot be rivalled by all the nobility and royalty of the world. If Jesus could exchange His elect bride for all the queens and empresses of earth, or even for the angels in heaven, He would not, for He puts her first and foremost--"fairest among women." Like the moon she far outshines the stars. Nor is this an opinion which He is ashamed of, for He invites all men to hear it. He sets a "behold" before it, a special note of exclamation, inviting and arresting attention. "Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair" (Song of Sol. 4:1). His opinion He publishes abroad even now, and one day from the throne of His glory He will avow the truth of it before the assembled universe. "Come, ye blessed of my Father" (Matt. 25:34), will be His solemn affirmation of the loveliness of His elect.

"There is no spot in thee." --Song of Solomon 4:7

Having pronounced His Church positively full of beauty, our Lord confirms His praise by a precious negative, "There is no spot in thee." As if the thought occurred to the Bridegroom that the carping world would insinuate that He had only mentioned her comely parts, and had purposely omitted those features which were deformed or defiled, He sums up all by declaring her universally and entirely fair, and utterly devoid of stain. A spot may soon be removed, and is the very least thing that can disfigure beauty, but even from this little blemish the believer is delivered in his Lord's sight. If He had said there is no hideous scar, no horrible deformity, no deadly ulcer, we might even then have marvelled; but when He testifies that she is free from the slightest spot, all these other forms of defilement are included, and the depth of wonder is increased. If He had but promised to remove all spots by-and-by, we should have had eternal reason for joy; but when He speaks of it as already done, who can restrain the most intense emotions of satisfaction and delight? O my soul, here is marrow and fatness for thee; eat thy full, and be satisfied with royal dainties.

Christ Jesus has no quarrel with His spouse. She often wanders from Him, and grieves His Holy Spirit, but He does not allow her faults to affect His love. He sometimes chides, but it is always in the tenderest manner, with the kindest intentions: it is "my love" even then. There is no remembrance of our follies, He does not cherish ill thoughts of us, but He pardons and loves as well after the offence as before it. It is well for us it is so, for if Jesus were as mindful of injuries as we are, how could He commune with us? Many a time a believer will put himself out of humour with the Lord for some slight turn in providence, but our precious Husband knows our silly hearts too well to take any offence at our ill manners.

"A spring shut up, a fountain sealed." --Song of Solomon 4:12

In this metaphor, which has reference to the inner life of a believer, we have very plainly the idea of secrecy. It is a spring shut up: just as there were springs in the East, over which an edifice was built, so that none could reach them save those who knew the secret entrance; so is the heart of a believer when it is renewed by grace: there is a mysterious life within which no human skill can touch. It is a secret which no other man knoweth; nay, which the very man who is the possessor of it cannot tell to his neighbour. The text includes not only secrecy, but separation. It is not the common spring, of which every passer-by may drink, it is one kept and preserved from all others; it is a fountain bearing a particular mark--a king's royal seal, so that all can perceive that it is not a common fountain, but a fountain owned by a proprietor, and placed specially by itself alone. So is it with the spiritual life. The chosen of God were separated in the eternal decree; they were separated by God in the day of redemption; and they are separated by the possession of a life which others have not; and it is impossible for them to feel at home with the world, or to delight in its pleasures. There is also the idea of sacredness. The spring shut up is preserved for the use of some special person: and such is the Christian's heart. It is a spring kept for Jesus. Every Christian should feel that he has God's seal upon him--and he should be able to say with Paul, "From henceforth let no man trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus." Another idea is prominent--it is that of security. Oh! how sure and safe is the inner life of the believer! If all the powers of earth and hell could combine against it, that immortal principle must still exist, for He who gave it pledged His life for its preservation. And who "is He that shall harm you," when God is your protector?

"My sister, my spouse." --Song of Solomon 4:12

Observe the sweet titles with which the heavenly Solomon with intense affection addresses His bride the church. "My sister, one near to me by ties of nature, partaker of the same sympathies. My spouse, nearest and dearest, united to me by the tenderest bands of love; my sweet companion, part of my own self. My sister, by my Incarnation, which makes me bone of thy bone and flesh of thy flesh; my spouse, by heavenly betrothal, in which I have espoused thee unto myself in righteousness. My sister, whom I knew of old, and over whom I watched from her earliest infancy; my spouse, taken from among the daughters, embraced by arms of love, and affianced unto me for ever. See how true it is that our royal Kinsman is not ashamed of us, for He dwells with manifest delight upon this two-fold relationship. We have the word "my" twice in our version; as if Christ dwelt with rapture on His possession of His Church. "His delights were with the sons of men," because those sons of men were His own chosen ones. He, the Shepherd, sought the sheep, because they were His sheep; He has gone about "to seek and to save that which was lost," because that which was lost was His long before it was lost to itself or lost to Him. The church is the exclusive portion of her Lord; none else may claim a partnership, or pretend to share her love. Jesus, thy church delights to have it so! Let every believing soul drink solace out of these wells. Soul! Christ is near to thee in ties of relationship; Christ is dear to thee in bonds of marriage union, and thou art dear to Him; behold He grasps both of thy hands with both His own, saying, "My sister, my spouse." Mark the two sacred holdfasts by which thy Lord gets such a double hold of thee that He neither can nor will ever let thee go. Be not, O beloved, slow to return the hallowed flame of His love.

"Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out." --Song of Solomon 4:16

Anything is better than the dead calm of indifference. Our souls may wisely desire the north wind of trouble if that alone can be sanctified to the drawing forth of the perfume of our graces. So long as it cannot be said, "The Lord was not in the wind," we will not shrink from the most wintry blast that ever blew upon plants of grace. Did not the spouse in this verse humbly submit herself to the reproofs of her Beloved; only entreating Him to send forth His grace in some form, and making no stipulation as to the peculiar manner in which it should come? Did she not, like ourselves, become so utterly weary of deadness and unholy calm that she sighed for any visitation which would brace her to action? Yet she desires the warm south wind of comfort, too, the smiles of divine love, the joy of the Redeemer's presence; these are often mightily effectual to arouse our sluggish life. She desires either one or the other, or both; so that she may but be able to delight her Beloved with the spices of her garden. She cannot endure to be unprofitable, nor can we. How cheering a thought that Jesus can find comfort in our poor feeble graces. Can it be? It seems far too good to be true. Well may we court trial or even death itself if we shall thereby be aided to make glad Immanuel's heart. O that our heart were crushed to atoms if only by such bruising our sweet Lord Jesus could be glorified. Graces unexercised are as sweet perfumes slumbering in the cups of the flowers: the wisdom of the great Husbandman overrules diverse and opposite causes to produce the one desired result, and makes both affliction and consolation draw forth the grateful odours of faith, love, patience, hope, resignation, joy, and the other fair flowers of the garden. May we know by sweet experience, what this means.

"I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse." -- Song of Solomon 5:1

The heart of the believer is Christ's garden. He bought it with His precious blood, and He enters it and claims it as His own. A garden implies separation. It is not the open common; it is not a wilderness; it is walled around, or hedged in. Would that we could see the wall of separation between the church and the world made broader and stronger. It makes one sad to hear Christians saying, "Well, there is no harm in this; there is no harm in that," thus getting as near to the world as possible. Grace is at a low ebb in that soul which can even raise the question of how far it may go in worldly conformity. A garden is a place of beauty, it far surpasses the wild uncultivated lands. The genuine Christian must seek to be more excellent in his life than the best moralist, because Christ's garden ought to produce the best flowers in all the world. Even the best is poor compared with Christ's deservings; let us not put Him off with withering and dwarf plants. The rarest, richest, choicest lilies and roses ought to bloom in the place which Jesus calls His own. The garden is a place of growth. The saints are not to remain undeveloped, always mere buds and blossoms. We should grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Growth should be rapid where Jesus is the Husbandman, and the Holy Spirit the dew from above. A garden is a place of retirement. So the Lord Jesus Christ would have us reserve our souls as a place in which He can manifest Himself, as He doth not unto the world. O that Christians were more retired, that they kept their hearts more closely shut up for Christ! We often worry and trouble ourselves, like Martha, with much serving, so that we have not the room for Christ that Mary had, and do not sit at His feet as we should. The Lord grant the sweet showers of His grace to water His garden this day.

"I sleep, but my heart waketh." --Song of Solomon 5:2

Paradoxes abound in Christian experience, and here is one--the spouse was asleep, and yet she was awake. He only can read the believer's riddle who has ploughed with the heifer of his experience. The two points in this evening's text are-a mournful sleepiness and a hopeful wakefulness. I sleep. Through sin that dwelleth in us we may become lax in holy duties, slothful in religious exercises, dull in spiritual joys, and altogether supine and careless. This is a shameful state for one in whom the quickening Spirit dwells; and it is dangerous to the highest degree. Even wise virgins sometimes slumber, but it is high time for all to shake off the bands of sloth. It is to be feared that many believers lose their strength as Samson lost his locks, while sleeping on the lap of carnal security. With a perishing world around us, to sleep is cruel; with eternity so near at hand, it is madness. Yet we are none of us so much awake as we should be; a few thunder-claps would do us all good, and it may be, unless we soon bestir ourselves, we shall have them in the form of war, or pestilence, or personal bereavements and losses. O that we may leave for ever the couch of fleshly ease, and go forth with flaming torches to meet the coming Bridegroom! My heart waketh. This is a happy sign. Life is not extinct, though sadly smothered. When our renewed heart struggles against our natural heaviness, we should be grateful to sovereign grace for keeping a little vitality within the body of this death. Jesus will hear our hearts, will help our hearts, will visit our hearts; for the voice of the wakeful heart is really the voice of our Beloved, saying, "Open to me." Holy zeal will surely unbar the door.

"Oh lovely attitude! He stands With melting heart and laden hands; My soul forsakes her every sin; And lets the heavenly stranger in."

"My Beloved put in His hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for Him." 5:4

Knocking was not enough, for my heart was too full of sleep, too cold and ungrateful to arise and open the door, but the touch of His effectual grace has made my soul bestir itself. Oh, the longsuffering of my Beloved, to tarry when He found Himself shut out, and me asleep upon the bed of sloth! Oh, the greatness of His patience, to knock and knock again, and to add His voice to His knockings, beseeching me to open to Him! How could I have refused Him! Base heart, blush and be confounded! But what greatest kindness of all is this, that He becomes His own porter and unbars the door Himself. Thrice blessed is the hand which condescends to lift the latch and turn the key. Now I see that nothing but my Lord's own power can save such a naughty mass of wickedness as I am; ordinances fail, even the gospel has no effect upon me, till His hand is stretched out. Now, also, I perceive that His hand is good where all else is unsuccessful, He can open when nothing else will. Blessed be His name, I feel His gracious presence even now. Well may my bowels move for Him, when I think of all that He has suffered for me, and of my ungenerous return. I have allowed my affections to wander. I have set up rivals. I have grieved Him. Sweetest and dearest of all beloveds, I have treated Thee as an unfaithful wife treats her husband. Oh, my cruel sins, my cruel self. What can I do? Tears are a poor show of my repentance, my whole heart boils with indignation at myself. Wretch that I am, to treat my Lord, my All in All, my exceeding great joy, as though He were a stranger. Jesus, thou forgivest freely, but this is not enough, prevent my unfaithfulness in the future. Kiss away these tears, and then purge my heart and bind it with sevenfold cords to Thyself, never to wander more.

"I called Him, but He gave me no answer." --Song of Solomon 5:6

Prayer sometimes tarrieth, like a petitioner at the gate, until the King cometh forth to fill her bosom with the blessings which she seeketh. The Lord, when He hath given great faith, has been known to try it by long delayings. He has suffered His servants' voices to echo in their ears as from a brazen sky. They have knocked at the golden gate, but it has remained immovable, as though it were rusted upon its hinges. Like Jeremiah, they have cried, "Thou hast covered Thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through." Thus have true saints continued long in patient waiting without reply, not because their prayers were not vehement, nor because they were unaccepted, but because it so pleased Him who is a Sovereign, and who gives according to His own pleasure. If it pleases Him to bid our patience exercise itself, shall He not do as He wills with His own! Beggars must not be choosers either as to time, place, or form. But we must be careful not to take delays in prayer for denials: God's long-dated bills will be punctually honoured; we must not suffer Satan to shake our confidence in the God of truth by pointing to our unanswered prayers. Unanswered petitions are not unheard. God keeps a file for our prayers--they are not blown away by the wind, they are treasured in the King's archives. This is a registry in the court of heaven wherein every prayer is recorded. Tried believer, thy Lord hath a tear-bottle in which the costly drops of sacred grief are put away, and a book in which thy holy groanings are numbered. By-and-by, thy suit shall prevail. Canst thou not be content to wait a little? Will not thy Lord's time be better than thy time? By-and-by He will comfortably appear, to thy soul's joy, and make thee put away the sackcloth and ashes of long waiting, and put on the scarlet and fine linen of full fruition.

"I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love." --Song of Solomon 5:8

Such is the language of the believer panting after present fellowship with Jesus, he is sick for his Lord. Gracious souls are never perfectly at ease except they are in a state of nearness to Christ; for when they are away from Him they lose their peace. The nearer to Him, the nearer to the perfect calm of heaven; the nearer to Him, the fuller the heart is, not only of peace, but of life, and vigour, and joy, for these all depend on constant intercourse with Jesus. What the sun is to the day, what the moon is to the night, what the dew is to the flower, such is Jesus Christ to us. What bread is to the hungry, clothing to the naked, the shadow of a great rock to the traveller in a weary land, such is Jesus Christ to us; and, therefore, if we are not consciously one with Him, little marvel if our spirit cries in the words of the Song, "I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, tell Him that I am sick of love." This earnest longing after Jesus has a blessing attending it: "Blessed are they that do hunger and thirst after righteousness"; and therefore, supremely blessed are they who thirst after the Righteous One. Blessed is that hunger, since it comes from God: if I may not have the full-blown blessedness of being filled, I would seek the same blessedness in its sweet bud-pining in emptiness and eagerness till I am filled with Christ. If I may not feed on Jesus, it shall be next door to heaven to hunger and thirst after Him. There is a hallowedness about that hunger, since it sparkles among the beatitudes of our Lord. But the blessing involves a promise. Such hungry ones "shall be filled" with what they are desiring. If Christ thus causes us to long after Himself, He will certainly satisfy those longings; and when He does come to us, as come He will, oh, how sweet it will be!

"His head is as the most fine gold, His locks are bushy, and black as a raven." --Song of Solomon 5:11

Comparisons all fail to set forth the Lord Jesus, but the spouse uses the best within her reach. By the head of Jesus we may understand His deity, "for the head of Christ is God" and then the ingot of purest gold is the best conceivable metaphor, but all too poor to describe one so precious, so pure, so dear, so glorious. Jesus is not a grain of gold, but a vast globe of it, a priceless mass of treasure such as earth and heaven cannot excel. The creatures are mere iron and clay, they all shall perish like wood, hay, and stubble, but the everliving Head of the creation of God shall shine on for ever and ever. In Him is no mixture, nor smallest taint of alloy. He is for ever infinitely holy and altogether divine. The bushy locks depict His manly vigour. There is nothing effeminate in our Beloved. He is the manliest of men. Bold as a lion, laborious as an ox, swift as an eagle. Every conceivable and inconceivable beauty is to be found in Him, though once He was despised and rejected of men.

"His head the finest gold; With secret sweet perfume, His curled locks hang all as black As any raven's plume."

The glory of His head is not shorn away, He is eternally crowned with peerless majesty. The black hair indicates youthful freshness, for Jesus has the dew of His youth upon Him. Others grow languid with age, but He is for ever a Priest as was Melchisedek; others come and go, but He abides as God upon His throne, world without end. We will behold Him to-night and adore Him. Angels are gazing upon Him--His redeemed must not turn away their eyes from Him. Where else is there such a Beloved? O for an hour's fellowship with Him! Away, ye intruding cares! Jesus draws me, and I run after Him.

"His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers." -- Song of Solomon 5:13

Lo, the flowery month is come! March winds and April showers have done their work, and the earth is all bedecked with beauty. Come my soul, put on thine holiday attire and go forth to gather garlands of heavenly thoughts. Thou knowest whither to betake thyself, for to thee "the beds of spices" are well known, and thou hast so often smelt the perfume of "the sweet flowers," that thou wilt go at once to thy well-beloved and find all loveliness, all joy in Him. That cheek once so rudely smitten with a rod, oft bedewed with tears of sympathy and then defiled with spittle--that cheek as it smiles with mercy is as fragrant aromatic to my heart. Thou didst not hide Thy face from shame and spitting, O Lord Jesus, and therefore I will find my dearest delight in praising Thee. Those cheeks were furrowed by the plough of grief, and crimsoned with red lines of blood from Thy thorn-crowned temples; such marks of love unbounded cannot but charm my soul far more than "pillars of perfume." If I may not see the whole of His face I would behold His cheeks, for the least glimpse of Him is exceedingly refreshing to my spiritual sense and yields a variety of delights. In Jesus I find not only fragrance, but a bed of spices; not one flower, but all manner of sweet flowers. He is to me my rose and my lily, my heart's- ease and my cluster of camphire. When He is with me it is May all the year round, and my soul goes forth to wash her happy face in the morning-dew of His grace, and to solace herself with the singing of the birds of His promises. Precious Lord Jesus, let me in very deed know the blessedness which dwells in abiding, unbroken fellowship with Thee. I am a poor worthless one, whose cheek Thou hast deigned to kiss! O let me kiss Thee in return with the kisses of my lips.

"Yea, He is altogether lovely." -- Song of Solomon 5:16

The superlative beauty of Jesus is all-attracting; it is not so much to be admired as to be loved. He is more than pleasant and fair, He is lovely. Surely the people of God can fully justify the use of this golden word, for He is the object of their warmest love, a love founded on the intrinsic excellence of His person, the complete perfection of His charms. Look, O disciples of Jesus, to your Master's lips, and say, "Are they not most sweet?" Do not His words cause your hearts to burn within you as He talks with you by the way? Ye worshippers of Immanuel, look up to His head of much fine gold, and tell me, are not His thoughts precious unto you? Is not your adoration sweetened with affection as ye humbly bow before that countenance which is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars? Is there not a charm in His every feature, and is not His whole person fragrant with such a savour of His good ointments, that therefore the virgins love Him? Is there one member of His glorious body which is not attractive?--one portion of His person which is not a fresh loadstone to our souls?--one office which is not a strong cord to bind your heart? Our love is not as a seal set upon His heart of love alone; it is fastened upon His arm of power also; nor is there a single part of Him upon which it does not fix itself. We anoint His whole person with the sweet spikenard of our fervent love. His whole life we would imitate; His whole character we would transcribe. In all other beings we see some lack, in Him there is all perfection. The best even of His favoured saints have had blots upon their garments and wrinkles upon their brows; He is nothing but loveliness. All earthly suns have their spots: the fair world itself hath its wilderness; we cannot love the whole of the most lovely thing; but Christ Jesus is gold without alloy-light without darkness--glory without cloud--"Yea, He is altogether lovely."

"Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field . . . let us see if the vine flourish." -- Song of Solomon 7:11,12

The church was about to engage in earnest labour, and desired her Lord's company in it. She does not say, "I will go," but "let us go." It is blessed working when Jesus is at our side! It is the business of God's people to be trimmers of God's vines. Like our first parents, we are put into the garden of the Lord for usefulness; let us therefore go forth into the field. Observe that the church, when she is in her right mind, in all her many labours desires to enjoy communion with Christ. Some imagine that they cannot serve Christ actively, and yet have fellowship with Him: they are mistaken. Doubtless it is very easy to fritter away our inward life in outward exercises, and come to complain with the spouse, "They made me keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept:" but there is no reason why this should be the case except our own folly and neglect. Certain is it that a professor may do nothing, and yet grow quite as lifeless in spiritual things as those who are most busy. Mary was not praised for sitting still; but for her sitting at Jesus' feet. Even so, Christians are not to be praised for neglecting duties under the pretence of having secret fellowship with Jesus: it is not sitting, but sitting at Jesus' feet which is commendable. Do not think that activity is in itself an evil: it is a great blessing, and a means of grace to us. Paul called it a grace given to him to be allowed to preach; and every form of Christian service may become a personal blessing to those engaged in it. Those who have most fellowship with Christ are not recluses or hermits, who have much time to spare, but indefatigable labourers who are toiling for Jesus, and who, in their toil, have Him side by side with them, so that they are workers together with God. Let us remember then, in anything we have to do for Jesus, that we can do it, and should do it in close communion with Him.

"Pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved." -- Song of Solomon 7:13

The spouse desires to give to Jesus all that she produces. Our heart has "all manner of pleasant fruits," both "old and new," and they are laid up for our Beloved. At this rich autumnal season of fruit, let us survey our stores. We have new fruits. We desire to feel new life, new joy, new gratitude; we wish to make new resolves and carry them out by new labours; our heart blossoms with new prayers, and our soul is pledging herself to new efforts. But we have some old fruits too. There is our first love: a choice fruit that! and Jesus delights in it. There is our first faith: that simple faith by which, having nothing, we became possessors of all things. There is our joy when first we knew the Lord: let us revive it. We have our old remembrances of the promises. How faithful has God been! In sickness, how softly did He make our bed! In deep waters, how placidly did He buoy us up! In the flaming furnace, how graciously did He deliver us. Old fruits, indeed! We have many of them, for His mercies have been more than the hairs of our head. Old sins we must regret, but then we have had repentances which He has given us, by which we have wept our way to the cross, and learned the merit of His blood. We have fruits, this morning, both new and old; but here is the point--they are all laid up for Jesus. Truly, those are the best and most acceptable services in which Jesus is the solitary aim of the soul, and His glory, without any admixture whatever, the end of all our efforts. Let our many fruits be laid up only for our Beloved; let us display them when He is with us, and not hold them up before the gaze of men. Jesus, we will turn the key in our garden door, and none shall enter to rob Thee of one good fruit from the soil which Thou hast watered with Thy bloody sweat. Our all shall be Thine, Thine only, O Jesus, our Beloved!

"Love is strong as death." -- Song of Solomon 8:6

Whose love can this be which is as mighty as the conqueror of monarchs, the destroyer of the human race? Would it not sound like satire if it were applied to my poor, weak, and scarcely living love to Jesus my Lord? I do love Him, and perhaps by His grace, I could even die for Him, but as for my love in itself, it can scarcely endure a scoffing jest, much less a cruel death. Surely it is my Beloved's love which is here spoken of--the love of Jesus, the matchless lover of souls. His love was indeed stronger than the most terrible death, for it endured the trial of the cross triumphantly. It was a lingering death, but love survived the torment; a shameful death, but love despised the shame; a penal death, but love bore our iniquities; a forsaken, lonely death, from which the eternal Father hid His face, but love endured the curse, and gloried over all. Never such love, never such death. It was a desperate duel, but love bore the palm. What then, my heart? Hast thou no emotions excited within thee at the contemplation of such heavenly affection? Yes, my Lord, I long, I pant to feel Thy love flaming like a furnace within me. Come Thou Thyself and excite the ardour of my spirit.

"For every drop of crimson blood Thus shed to make me live ,O wherefore, wherefore have not I A thousand lives to give?"

Why should I despair of loving Jesus with a love as strong as death? He deserves it: I desire it. The martyrs felt such love, and they were but flesh and blood, then why not I? They mourned their weakness, and yet out of weakness were made strong. Grace gave them all their unflinching constancy--there is the same grace for me. Jesus, lover of my soul, shed abroad such love, even Thy love in my heart, this evening.

"Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to Thy voice: cause me to hear it." --Song of Solomon 8:13

My sweet Lord Jesus remembers well the garden of Gethsemane, and although He has left that garden, He now dwells in the garden of His church: there He unbosoms Himself to those who keep His blessed company. That voice of love with which He speaks to His beloved is more musical than the harps of heaven. There is a depth of melodious love within it which leaves all human music far behind. Ten of thousands on earth, and millions above, are indulged with its harmonious accents. Some whom I well know, and whom I greatly envy, are at this moment hearkening to the beloved voice. O that I were a partaker of their joys! It is true some of these are poor, others bedridden, and some near the gates of death, but O my Lord, I would cheerfully starve with them, pine with them, or die with them, if I might but hear Thy voice. Once I did hear it often, but I have grieved Thy Spirit. Return unto me in compassion, and once again say unto me, "I am thy salvation." No other voice can content me; I know Thy voice, and cannot be deceived by another, let me hear it, I pray thee. I know not what Thou wilt say, neither do I make any condition, O my Beloved, do but let me hear Thee speak, and if it be a rebuke I will bless Thee for it. Perhaps to cleanse my dull ear may need an operation very grievous to the flesh, but let it cost what it may I turn not from the one consuming desire, cause me to hear Thy voice. Bore my ear afresh; pierce my ear with Thy harshest notes, only do not permit me to continue deaf to Thy calls. Tonight, Lord, grant Thine unworthy one his desire, for I am Thine, and Thou hast bought me with Thy blood. Thou hast opened mine eye to see Thee, and the sight has saved me. Lord, open Thou mine ear. I have read Thy heart, now let me hear Thy lips.

Song of Solomon Chapter 1
Beloved
2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth - for your love is more delightful than wine.
³ Pleasing is the fragrance of your perfumes; your name is like perfume poured out.
No wonder the maidens love you!

⁴ Take me away with you-let us hurry! Let the king bring me into his chambers. We rejoice and delight in you; we will praise your love more than wine. How right they are to adore you! ⁵ Dark am I, yet lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem, dark like the tents of Kedar, like the tent curtains of Solomon.

 ⁶ Do not stare at me because I am dark, because I am darkened by the sun. My mother's sons were angry with me and made me take care of the vineyards; my own vineyard I have neglected.
 ⁷ Tell me, you whom I love, where you graze your flock and where you rest your sheep at midday. Why should I be like a veiled woman beside the flocks of your friends?

 Daughters of Jerusalem

 ⁸ If you do not know, most beautiful of women, follow the tracks of the sheep and graze your young goats by the tents of the shepherds.

 Lover

 ⁹ I liken you, my darling, to a mare harnessed to one of the chariots of Pharaoh.

 ¹⁰ Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels.

 ¹¹ We will make you earrings of gold, studded with silver. Beloved ¹² While the king was at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance.
 ¹³ My lover is to me a sachet of myrrh resting between my breasts.
 ¹⁴ My lover is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi.

Lover ¹⁵ How beautiful you are, my darling! Oh, how beautiful! Your eyes are doves. Beloved ¹⁶ How handsome you are, my lover! Oh, how charming! And our bed is verdant. Lover ¹⁷ The beams of our house are cedars; our rafters are firs.

Song of Solomon Chapter 2 Lover ¹ I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys. ² Like a lily among thorns is my darling among the maidens. Beloved ³ Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest is my lover among the young men. I delight to sit in his shade, and his fruit is sweet to my taste.

⁴ He has taken me to the banquet hall, and his banner over me is love.
⁵ Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples, for I am faint with love.
⁶ His left arm is under my head, and his right arm embraces me.
⁷ Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you by the gazelles and by the does of the field: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

⁸ Listen! My lover! Look! Here he comes, leaping across the mountains, bounding over the hills. ⁹ My lover is like a gazelle or a young stag. Look! There he stands behind our wall, gazing through the windows, peering through the lattice. ¹⁰ My lover spoke and said to me, "Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, and come with me.

 ¹¹ See! The winter is past; the rains are over and gone.
 ¹² Flowers appear on the earth; the season of singing has come, the cooing of doves is heard in our land.
 ¹³ The fig tree forms its early fruit; the blossoming vines spread their fragrance. Arise, come, my darling; my beautiful one, come with me."

Lover ¹⁴ My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places on the mountainside, show me your face, let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely. ¹⁵ Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that ruin the vineyards, our vineyards that are in bloom.

Beloved ¹⁶ My lover is mine and I am his; he browses among the lilies. ¹⁷ Until the day breaks and the shadows flee, turn, my lover, and be like a gazelle or like a young stag on the rugged hills.

¹ All night long on my bed I looked for the one my heart loves; I looked for him but did not find him.
² I will get up now and go about the city, through its streets and squares;
I will search for the one my heart loves. So I looked for him but did not find him.

³ The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city. "Have you seen the one my heart loves?"
⁴ Scarcely had I passed them when I found the one my heart loves. I held him and would not let him go till I had brought him to my mother's house, to the room of the one who conceived me.

> Daughters of Jerusalem ⁵ Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you by the gazelles and by the does of the field: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

⁶ Who is this coming up from the desert like a column of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and incense made from all the spices of the merchant? *Beloved*⁷ Look! It is Solomon's carriage, escorted by sixty warriors, the noblest of Israel, ⁸ all of them wearing the sword, all experienced in battle, each with his sword at his side, prepared for the terrors of the night.

⁹ King Solomon made for himself the carriage; he made it of wood from Lebanon.
 ¹⁰ Its posts he made of silver, its base of gold. Its seat was upholstered with purple, its interior lovingly inlaid by the daughters of Jerusalem.
 ¹¹ Come out, you daughters of Zion, and look at King Solomon wearing the crown, the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, the day his heart rejoiced.

Lover

¹ How beautiful you are, my darling! Oh, how beautiful! Your eyes behind your veil are doves. Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from Mount Gilead. ² Your teeth are like a flock of sheep just shorn, coming up from the washing. Each has its twin; not one of them is alone.

 ³ Your lips are like a scarlet ribbon; your mouth is lovely. Your temples behind your veil are like the halves of a pomegranate.
 ⁴ Your neck is like the tower of David, built with elegance; on it hang a thousand shields, all of them shields of warriors.
 ⁵ Your two breasts are like two fawns, like twin fawns of a gazelle that browse among the lilies.

⁶ Until the day breaks and the shadows flee, I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of incense.
⁷ All beautiful you are, my darling; there is no flaw in you.
⁸ Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.
Descend from the crest of Amana, from the top of Senir, the summit of Hermon, from the lions' dens and the mountain haunts of the leopards.

⁹ You have stolen my heart, my sister, my bride; you have stolen my heart with one glance of your eyes, with one jewel of your necklace.
¹⁰ How delightful is your love, my sister, my bride!
How much more pleasing is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your perfume than any spice!

¹¹ Your lips drop sweetness as the honeycomb, my bride; milk and honey are under your tongue. The fragrance of your garments is like that of Lebanon.

¹² You are a garden locked up, my sister, my bride; you are a spring enclosed, a sealed fountain. ¹³ Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates with choice fruits, with henna and nard,

¹⁴ nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree, with myrrh and aloes and all the finest spices.
 ¹⁵ You are a garden fountain, a well of flowing water streaming down from Lebanon.

Beloved
¹⁶ Awake, north wind, and come, south wind!
Blow on my garden, that its fragrance may spread abroad.
Let my lover come into his garden and taste its choice fruits.

Song of Solomon Chapter 5 Lover

¹ I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride; I have gathered my myrrh with my spice. I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey; I have drunk my wine and my milk. Eat, O friends, and drink; drink your fill, O lovers.

 Beloved

 ² I slept but my heart was awake. Listen! My lover is knocking:

 Lover

 "Open to me, my sister, my darling, my dove, my flawless one.

 My head is drenched with dew, my hair with the dampness of the night."

 Beloved

 ³ I have taken off my robe – must I put it on again?

 I have washed my feet – must I soil them again?

⁴ My lover thrust his hand through the latch-opening; my heart began to pound for him.
⁵ I arose to open for my lover, and my hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with flowing myrrh, on the handles of the lock.
⁶ I opened for my lover, but my lover had left; he was gone. My heart sank at his departure. I looked for him but did not find him. I called him but he did not answer.

⁷ The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city. They beat me, they bruised me; they took away my cloak, those watchmen of the walls! ⁸ O daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you- if you find my lover, what will you tell him? Tell him I am faint with love.

> Daughters of Jerusalem
> ⁹ How is your beloved better than others, most beautiful of women? How is your beloved better than others, that you charge us so?

Beloved ¹⁰ My lover is radiant and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand. ¹¹ His head is purest gold; his hair is wavy and black as a raven. ¹² His eyes are like doves by the water streams, washed in milk, mounted like jewels. ¹³ His cheeks are like beds of spice yielding perfume. His lips are like lilies dripping with myrrh.

> ¹⁴ His arms are rods of gold set with chrysolite.
> His body is like polished ivory decorated with sapphires.
> ¹⁵ His legs are pillars of marble set on bases of pure gold. His appearance is like Lebanon, choice as its cedars.
> ¹⁶ His mouth is sweetness itself; he is altogether lovely. This is my lover, this my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Daughters of Jerusalem ¹ Where has your lover gone, most beautiful of women?

Which way did your lover turn, that we may look for him with you?

Beloved

² My lover has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to browse in the gardens and to gather lilies. ³ I am my lover's and my lover is mine; he browses among the lilies.

Lover ⁴ You are beautiful, my darling, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, majestic as troops with banners. ⁵ Turn your eyes from me; they overwhelm me. Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from Gilead. ⁶ Your teeth are like a flock of sheep coming up from the washing. Each has its twin, not one of them is alone.

> ⁷ Your temples behind your veil are like the halves of a pomegranate.
> ⁸ Sixty queens there may be, and eighty concubines, and virgins beyond number;
> ⁹ but my dove, my perfect one, is unique, the only daughter of her mother, the favorite of the one who bore her.
> The maidens saw her and called her blessed; the queens and concubines praised her.

 Daughters of Jerusalems

 ¹⁰ Who is this that appears like the dawn, fair as the moon, bright as the sun, majestic as the stars in procession?

 Lover

 ¹¹ I went down to the grove of nut trees to look at the new growth in the valley, to see if the vines had budded or the pomegranates were in bloom.

 ¹² Before I realized it, my desire set me among the royal chariots of my people.

Daughters of Jerusalem ¹³ Come back, come back, O Shulammite; come back, come back, that we may gaze on you! Lover Why would you gaze on the Shulammite as on the dance of Mahanaim?

 Your graceful legs are like jewels, the work of a craftsman's hands.
 ² Your navel is a rounded goblet that never lacks blended wine.
 Your waist is a mound of wheat encircled by lilies.
 ³ Your breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

 ⁴ Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are the pools of Heshbon by the gate of Bath Rabbim. Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon looking toward Damascus.
 ⁵ Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel. Your hair is like royal tapestry; the king is held captive by its tresses.
 ⁶ How beautiful you are and how pleasing, O love, with your delights!

⁷ Your stature is like that of the palm, and your breasts like clusters of fruit.
 ⁸ I said, "I will climb the palm tree; I will take hold of its fruit."
 May your breasts be like the clusters of the vine, the fragrance of your breath like apples,
 ⁹ and your mouth like the best wine.

Beloved May the wine go straight to my lover, flowing gently over lips and teeth. ¹⁰ I belong to my lover, and his desire is for me. ¹¹ Come, my lover, let us go to the countryside, let us spend the night in the villages.

¹² Let us go early to the vineyards to see if the vines have budded, if their blossoms have opened, and if the pomegranates are in bloom - there I will give you my love.
 ¹³ The mandrakes send out their fragrance, and at our door is every delicacy, both new and old, that I have stored up for you, my lover.

Beloved

¹ If only you were to me like a brother, who was nursed at my mother's breasts! Then, if I found you outside, I would kiss you, and no one would despise me.

 ² I would lead you and bring you to my mother's house - she who has taught me. I would give you spiced wine to drink, the nectar of my pomegranates.
 ⁴ Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

> Daughters of Jerusalem ⁵ Who is this coming up from the desert leaning on her lover? Beloved Under the apple tree I roused you; there your mother conceived you, there she who was in labor gave you birth.

⁶ Place me like a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm; for love is as strong as death, its jealousy unyielding as the grave. It burns like blazing fire, like a mighty flame.
⁷ Many waters cannot quench love; rivers cannot wash it away.
If one were to give all the wealth of his house for love, it would be utterly scorned.

Lover and Beloved ⁸ We have a young sister, and her breasts are not yet grown. What shall we do for our sister for the day she is spoken for? ⁹ If she is a wall, we will build towers of silver on her. If she is a door, we will enclose her with panels of cedar.

Beloved ¹⁰ I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers. Thus I have become in his eyes like one bringing contentment. ¹¹ Solomon had a vineyard in Baal Hamon; he let out his vineyard to tenants. Each was to bring for its fruit a thousand shekels of silver. ¹² But my own vineyard is mine to give; the thousand shekels are for you, O Solomon, and two hundred are for those who tend its fruit.

Lover ¹³ You who dwell in the gardens with friends in attendance, let me hear your voice! Beloved ¹⁴ Come away, my lover, and be like a gazelle or like a young stag on the spice-laden mountains.

THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT

(i) ALOES - Fruit of Self-Control <4:14>

(ii) Ahaliym (174) - of foreign origin; aloe wood (i.e. sticks):

Two plants, one a tree and the other a flower

The aloes mentioned in <Psalm 45:8; Proverbs 7:17>, and <Song of Solomon 4:14> came from a large tree known as "eaglewood," a plant native to India. The wood of the aloe tree is fragrant and highly valued for perfume and incense. Many authorities believe the lign aloe to be the same tree <Num. 24:6> (KJV).

The aloes brought by Nicodemus to wrap the body of Jesus <John 19:39> were probably the true aloes of the lily family, a beautiful plant with thick, fleshy leaves and red flowers. The aloin derived from the pulp of the aloe leaf was an expensive product used in embalming.

(i) CALAMUS - Fruit of Kindness (that which makes us upright & creates uprightness in others) - <4:14>
(ii) Qaneh (7070) - a reed (as erect); by resemblance a rod (especially for measuring), shaft, tube, stem, the radius (of the arm), beam (of a steelyard):

a primitive root; to erect, i.e. create; by extension, to procure, especially by purchase (causatively, sell); by implication to own:

A fragrant, reed-like grass growing along streams and river banks <Song 4:14>, also referred to as sweet cane <Is. 43:24; Jer. 6:20>. Calamus leaves are fragrant and ginger-flavored when crushed. It is named with other aromatic substances <Ezek. 27:19> and as one ingredient for the anointing oil <Ex. 30:23>. It is believed to be a plant native to India <Jer. 6:20>.

(i) CINNAMON - Fruit of Goodness - <4:14>

(ii) Qinnamown (7076) - from an unused root (meaning to erect); cinnamon bark (as in upright rolls):

A member of the laurel family, the cinnamon tree grew to be more than 9 meters (30 feet) tall with white flowers and wide-spreading branches. A native of Ceylon, the cinnamon tree produced bark and oil which was used for the anointing oil <Ex. 30:23> and as perfume <Prov. 7:17; Rev. 18:13>.

(Nelson's Illustrated Bible Dictionary) (Copyright © 1986, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

(i) FRANKINCENSE - Fruit of Faithfulness - <3:6; 4:6,14>

(ii) Lebownah (3828) - frankincense (from its whiteness or perhaps that of its smoke): -frank- incense. From root meaning 'white'.

Frankincense was part of the sacred anointing oil <Ex. 30:34>. It was used in sacrificial offering <Lev. 2:1>, as a fumigant during animal sacrifices <Ex. 30:7>, and as perfume <Song 3:6>. It was a gift to baby Jesus <Matt. 2:11>.

The trees are native to India, Arabia, and Africa. Palestine probably obtained this product through foreign trade <Is. 60:6>.

(i) HENNA - (iii) The fruit of Joy (or the Lord) - the Joy of being redeemed (joy of salvation) - <1:14; 4:13; Ps 51:12>

(ii) Kopher (3724) - a cover, i.e. (literally) a village (as covered in); (specifically) bitumen (as used for coating), and the henna plant (as used for dyeing); figuratively, a redemption-price:

From a primitive root; to cover (specifically with bitumen); figuratively, to expiate or condone, to placate or cancel:

A plant used to produce a valuable orange-red dye. It was two to three meters (seven to ten feet) tall and bore fragrant white flowers. Solomon compared his beloved to a cluster of henna <Song 1:14; 4:13>; (camphire, KJV).

(Nelson's Illustrated Bible Dictionary) (Copyright © 1986, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

(i) MYRRH - Fruit of Meekness - <1:13; 3:6; 4:6,14; 5:5,13>

(ii) More (4753) - or mowr (more); myrrh (as distilling in drops, and also as bitter): From a primitive root; properly, to trickle; to be (causatively, make) bitter (literally or figuratively):

An extract from a stiff-branched tree with white flowers and plum-like fruit. After myrrh was extracted from the wood, it soon hardened and was valued as an article of trade. It was an ingredient used in anointing oil <Ex. 30:23>, and was used as perfume <Ps. 45:8; Prov. 7:17; Song 3:6>, in purification rites for women <Esth. 2:12>, as a gift for the infant Jesus <Matt. 2:11>, and in embalming <John 19:39>. According to the Gospel of Mark <15:23>, the drink offered to Jesus before His crucifixion was "wine mingled with myrrh." Matthew, however, has "sour wine mingled with gall" <Matt. 27:34>.

(Nelson's Illustrated Bible Dictionary) (Copyright © 1986, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

(i) POMEGRANATE - Fruit of Love (overall characteristic of the Fruit of the Spirit).

<4:3,13; 6:7,11; 7:12; 8:2>

(ii) Rimmown (7416) - a pomegranate, the tree (from its upright growth) or the fruit (also an artificial ornament). From a primitive root; to rise (literally or figuratively):

A round, sweet fruit about ten centimeters (four inches) across with a hard rind. It is green when young and turns red when ripe. There are numerous edible seeds inside the pomegranate.

The pomegranate tree has been cultivated in Palestine and Egypt since ancient times <Num. 13:23; Deut. 8:8>. It grew as a bush or small tree, sometimes reaching a height of about 9 meters (30 feet) with small, lance-shaped leaves. The blossoms were bright red. The fruit usually ripened in August or September.

Pomegranates were highly esteemed during Bible times. The hem of Aaron's robe was decorated with blue, purple, and red pomegranates <Ex. 28:33-34; 39:24-26>. It was listed among the pleasant fruits of Egypt <Num. 20:5>. Solomon decorated the Temple with the likeness of the pomegranate <1 Kin. 7:18, 20>. A spiced wine was made from the juice <Song 8:2>.

(Nelson's Illustrated Bible Dictionary) (Copyright © 1986, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

(i) SAFFRON - Fruit of Longsuffering - <4:14>

(ii) 3750 Karkom (3750) - probably of foreign origin; the crocus:

The product of many varieties of crocus, a flower which grew from a bulb and produced light-blue flowers. Crocus blooms were gathered, dried, and pressed into cakes of saffron. Saffron was used as a coloring for curries and stews. It was also used as a perfume for the floors of theaters and for weddings. Solomon was the only Bible writer to refer to saffron <Song 4:14>.

(Nelson's Illustrated Bible Dictionary) (Copyright © 1986, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

(i) SPIKENARD - Fruit of Peace - <1:12; 4:13,14>

(ii) Nerd (5373) - of foreign origin; nard, an aromatic:

Spikenard. A costly oil derived from the dried roots and stems of the nard, an herb of Asia. This oil was used as a liquid or made into an ointment. Solomon praised the fragrance of spikenard <Song 1:12; 4:13-14>.

Spikenard was imported from India in alabaster boxes. These were stored and used only for special occasions. When household guests arrived, they were usually anointed with this oil. Jesus was anointed on two occasions as an honored guest (Mark 14:3; John 12:3>.

Many spikes grew from a single nard root which produced clusters of pink flowers. The stems were covered with hair, giving them a woolly appearance. Some translations of the Bible refer to spikenard as nard.

KNOWING GOD: The Salvation Message

SALVATION THROUGH CHRIST: A Matter of FAITH: What do you think it takes for someone to get to heaven? Is it luck? Good deeds? Nothing at all? Or is there something more? The Bible has the answer to this question. It's a matter of F-A-I-T-H

"F" stands for FORGIVENESS: We cannot have eternal life without God's forgiveness. Ephesians 1:7a in the Bible says, "In Him (Jesus Christ) we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins."

"A" is for AVAILABLE: Forgiveness is available for all. John 3:16 says, "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." But forgiveness is not automatic. "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven," says Matthew 7:21a.

"I" is for IMPOSSIBLE: It is impossible for God to allow sin into heaven because of who He is and because of who we are. God is loving and just, but His judgment is against sin. James 2:13a says, "Because judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful." We are sinful people. Romans 3:23 says, "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God."

"T" is for TURN: To turn means to repent. We can repent – or turn – from our sin and from ourselves. "But unless you repent, you too will all perish," Luke 13:3b says. We can also turn to Someone. Trust Christ alone. Romans10:9 tells us how: "That if you confess with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved."

"H" is for HEAVEN: Heaven is eternal life. Here, that means life "to the full:" "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full (John 10:10b)." In the hereafter, it means the promise of heaven: "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am (John 14:3)."

Take the step of faith described by another meaning of FAITH:

Forsaking All I Trust Him

To receive God's love and forgiveness, pray the following from the heart:

"Lord Jesus, I know I am a sinner and have displeased You in many ways. I believe You died for my sin, and only through faith in Your death and resurrection can I be forgiven. I want to turn from my sin and ask You to come into my life as my Savior and Lord. From this day on, I will follow You by living a life that pleases You through the Power of Your Holy Spirit. Now, fill me with Your Holy Spirit so I can serve You. Thank you, Jesus, for saving me. Amen."

PRAYER FOR HEALING THE WOUNDED SPIRIT

I SAY IN THE NAME OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST THAT MY LIFE IS NOT A MISTAKE. GOD MADE ME OUT OF THE LOVE THAT HE IS. HE CALLED ME INTO BEING AT THE RIGHT TIME AND THE RIGHT PLACE. HE PREPARED A WAY FOR ME AND GAVE HIS LIFE FOR ME. I AM A PRIVILEGE, NOT A BURDEN; A JOY AND A DELIGHT, NOT A DISAPPOINTMENT; I AM NOT AN INTRUSION, I BELONG. I AM A TREASURE JUST BECAUSE I AM, NOT MERELY FOR WHAT I CAN DO. I AM ONE OF GOD'S OWN CHILDREN, AND HE DELIGHTS IN ME. THE LORD IS POURING HIS LOVE IN TO ME. I CHOOSE TO FORGIVE THOSE THAT WOUNDED ME. FORGIVE ME FOR REJECTING THE LIFE YOU PLANNED FOR ME. I ASK, LORD, THAT YOU EMPOWER ME TO CHOOSE LIFE. I CHOOSE LIFE - YOUR LIFE. IN JESUS' NAME I PRAY. AMEN. (MATT.6:12,14-15; 18:21-35; JOHN 20:23)

"BREAKING GENERATIONAL SIN"

Father God, in the mighty name of Jesus Christ, I come to You now and repent on behalf of my family line. Lord, whenever there was the sin of (name the sin) on my father's or mother's side, I repent of that sin on behalf of myself and my family, both on the (father's family name) side and on the (mother's family name) side. When ever I or my ancestors yielded to this particular sin, even as far back as Adam, I ask You to forgive us as a family and to cleanse the family line of this sin by the Blood of Jesus. When ever You see an invisible soul-tie that connects me with any of those people who yielded to this sin, I now take a sword in the spirit and in the name of Jesus Christ and through the Blood of Jesus Christ I sever that connection in the spirit and I break every unholy soul-tie between myself and those previous generations. And I now place a river of the Blood of Jesus Christ and those generations and render myself free from any unholy influence. I also break any curse that has come to me or my children through generational sins and curses. In Jesus' name and through His Blood, I ask you to turn the curses into blessings. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

(Pray this prayer as many times as necessary, each time you identify a generational sin operating in your family).

From the Book "Spiritual Warfare and Your Children" by Ray Beeson & Kathi Mills

"A PRAYER FOR BLESSING"

As I seek to cleanse my hands, O God, purify my heart and make me acceptable in Your sight. I pray that You would look upon me and bless me. As I humble myself before You, exalt me and let Your favour go before me. Spread Your goodness before me. May it accompany Your mercy as it follows me in accordance with Your promises. Lord, cause Your face to shine upon me. Let Your blessings overtake me. Grant me peace with all who would set their face against me as I walk in peace and fellowship with You. Let no weapon formed against me succeed. Equip me with the strength to do Your will. Bless the work of my hands, and cause me to prosper in all my ways, even as my soul prospers. Order my steps on paths of promotion as I acknowledge You. Grant me the power to gain wealth as I surrender my all to You. Most of all, I pray that You grant me wisdom. The wisdom to seek You above all things. Teach me to be a wise steward of all You grant, and let each blessing that You render, be an occasion to further glorify Your name in all the earth. In the matchless and wonderful name of Jesus I pray. Amen.

ARMOUR OF GOD

Good morning Father! Good morning Jesus! Good morning Holy Spirit! Today Heavenly Father, according to Your Word, I present my body to You as a living sacrifice. holy and acceptable in Your sight. Because I am not attending against flesh and blood, but against principalities, powers, world rulers of this present darkness, and spiritual hosts of wickedness in heavenly places, I take the whole armour of God so that I am be able to withstand in the evil day. So today I stand and gird my loins with truth. I put on the breastplate of righteousness. I shod my feet with the preparation of the Gospel of peace. Above all these, I take the shield of faith to quench all the flaming darts of the evil one. I take the helmet of salvation and the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. I pray at all times in the Spirit with all prayer and supplication for all God's family and for me that I may open my mouth boldly to proclaim the Gospel. The weapons of my warfare are not worldly but have divine power to destroy strongholds. Today I destroy obstacles and every proud obstacle to the knowledge of God and take every thought captive to obey Christ. Thank you Lord, that according to Your Word the glory of the Lord is my rear guard. I praise You and thank You for the armor of light You have provided for me this day. I am completely covered now. Upon Jesus I have built my life. The gates of hell shall not prevail against me. Jesus I apply Your precious Blood to my life, my family, my home, and all my possessions. You are my Shepherd and I shall not want. You have supplied all my needs according to Your riches in glory. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. I praise You for walking in divine health for You are my God who heals all my diseases. I praise You and thank You for my prosperity and good health even as my soul prospers. For the joy of the Lord is my strength. Father, I have prayed according to Your Word. You said You would watch over Your Word to perform it. I am reminded that every word spoken becomes a living thing – either to minister life or death and destruction. Jesus, let my meditation be sweet to You as I will rejoice in You all day. Just rise up and live big within me. For I am Yours and You are mine. In the Mighty Name of Jesus I pray. Amen. (PRAY THIS PRAYER EVERY MORNING)
